Hospitality

and Tourism Education in China Jigang Bao, Songshan (Sam) Huang, 2021-12-30 This book is the first to systematically introduce China's tourism education system and the various tourism education practices in China to the international audience and stakeholders. China has the world's largest tourism education system which consists of over 1 000 higher learning institutions with tourism related programs and over half a million of tertiary level students studying in these programs. Despite the industry scale internationally little is known about this tourism education system and how it operates. Knowledge and better understanding of China's tourism education system are important as tourism becomes one of the critical forces transforming economy, society and environment. The book offers an historical evaluation of China tourism education development and elaborates on the current industry status and practices in different subject fields of China's tourism education including tourism management, hospitality management, events and festival management in higher education, tourism vocational education, tour guides training and certification, master of tourism administration, MTA education as a unique education model in China, PhD education in tourism, tourism curriculum research and international collaboration in tourism education in China. The book provides relevant knowledge to international tourism education providers, industry practitioners, human resource managers, government officials and tourism academics, researchers and students.

Tour Guides at Memorial Sites and Holocaust Museums Anja Ballis, 2022-05-23 In this volume contributors reflect on how to teach and mediate difficult history from the perspectives of guides. Too often their activities are undervalued and taken for granted. Guides represent an important, often forgotten group of educators. This volume takes a global view on guiding at memorial sites and museums in Europe, North America and South Africa. The contributors to this volume show from different research traditions that it is worth understanding more about the guides' personal interests, their motivations and their concept of guiding. Authors apply methodologies from the social sciences to describe the guides' point of view. Complementing the various approaches in tour guide research, a detailed linguistic analysis sheds light on a survivor's testimony echoed in the guides' language. The studies gathered in this volume open up an orientation for further approaches to tour guiding based on and centered around authentic materials from guides.

Managing a Tour Operating Business Shepherd Nyaruwata, 2022-03-09 This book provides knowledge of and insights into the nature and characteristics of the global tour operations business. It highlights the role played by tour operators in developing tourism in both developed and developing countries and offers critical analysis of how the growth of information communication technologies has influenced the adoption of new business models by tour operators. The text also provides useful case studies drawn from Europe, Africa and the United States of America which will assist the reader to understand how the industry has evolved. It further highlights the challenges being faced by tour operators in developing countries and offers a business model that will assist them in retaining future business sustainability.

Professional Communication Winnie Cheng, Kenneth C.C. Kong, 2009-04-01 Professional Communication presents ten studies of communication practices in a variety of professional contexts By drawing on diverse methodologies from fields such as conversation analysis intercultural communication and organizational studies the essays here examine how language is constructed managed and consumed in various professional situations ranging from academic settings to business negotiations One important theme of the book is its emphasis on the collaboration between researchers and professionals The contributors strongly believe that such collaborative partnership will provide direct implications for improving workplace communication and enhance better understanding of the construction of professional identity and organizational behaviour This book will appeal to not only scholars and researchers in discourse analysis intercultural communication and professional studies but also practitioners in the related fields and disciplines Cambridge IGCSE Travel and Tourism John D. Smith, Fiona Warburton, 2012-06-29 Endorsed by University of Cambridge International Examinations Cambridge IGCSE Travel and Tourism has been written specifically for the Cambridge IGCSE Travel and Tourism syllabus Sections have been split into units each dealing with a particular topic and are cross referenced to other units wherever appropriate This new title contains a wide variety of activities and questions to check and facilitate students understanding as well as case studies and illustrative examples encouraging subject based knowledge and a truly international approach Identity and Intercultural Exchange in Travel and Tourism Anthony David Barker, 2014-10-14 This book looks at the relationship between questions of identity formation and modern practices in travelling and tourism Unprecedented levels of mobility and international exchange over the last 100 years have raised questions about the stability of national and personal identities and new and creative patterns of behaviour and self realisation are now emerging due to the enormous commercial interests that lie behind the modern travel and tourism industries The volume will consider these issues and the challenges they create in various geographical contexts Germany Spain Romania Italy Africa and concludes with a number of case studies from the Portuguese context where the revenues from tourism are integral to its economy and a lifeline in the current economic crisis Parks, 1979 Future Stories in the Global Heritage Industry Alia Yunis, Robert Parthesius, Niccolò Acram Cappelletto, 2024-09-09 Future Stories in the Global Heritage Industry explores what happens to the heritage and memory of communities that find themselves in contact with the rest of the world when they become UNESCO World Heritage Sites Written by an interdisciplinary group of emerging scholars and heritage professionals connected to these sites through their own heritage this volume considers how a community can engage with a site s globalized importance while retaining its own sense of history Drawing on oral histories ethnographic methods film interviews and archival research the book adds to the discourse around Critical Heritage Studies It does so by putting theories into practice in selected heritage sites in Romania the UAE India Eritrea China Mozambique Tanzania and Malaysia The book also contributes toward the dismantlement of the many dichotomies imposed on heritage from the divisions between natural and cultural or tangible and intangible in the UNESCO Conventions and Eurocentric heritage practices Looking toward the future of the past the volume asks whether heritage can be objectively or equitably managed as it increasingly comes into conflict with issues around nation building climate change social class ethnicity religion and gender Future Stories in the Global Heritage Industry will be of great interest to academics and students engaged in the study of heritage sociology public history history international studies sociology and anthropology
