God's Black Badge Jim Finn, 2013-10-18 It seems that since my conception God has always blessed me with his guidance and protection He has always taken care of my enemies and he took my pain to become their pain There were many times that I could not understand or rationalize why my situations were eased and the end results were always positive It took me many years to realize that God's unchanging hand dealt me the necessary cards of life that has carried me from the gutter most to the uttermost As we Christian folks always say God may not be there when you need him most but he will not forsake you and he is always be there on time The following occurrences are true and without my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ my life would be in turmoil and filled with sadistic behavior The following is also my testimony of just how great God's love is if we would only let go and let God
