E. Kerr,Mary James,2013-12-17 The fantastical story of a lonely eleven year old whose parrot takes him on a magical mystery tour of a planet where sleeping is against the law

Chester Dumbello's mom interprets people's dreams. One day a white one-eyed parrot flies into the Dream Caf. Chester's mom says that the day something rhymes with orange they can keep the parrot. Since nothing does she comes up with the name Lornge and the parrot becomes the newest member of the Dumbello family. But there's something odd about Lornge. He never sleeps. Or as he puts it, I tell no lies nor shut my eyes. It's summer and school's out. Chester's favorite time of year because the other kids can't bother him about his unusual mother. But he feels trapped in a tug of war between his aunt Dolly who wants Chester to visit and his mom who doesn't want him to go. Then one night Lornge takes him to the planet Alert where sleeping is against the law. Chester is adopted by a family named Quick boasting a mother and a father and meets all kinds of strange and interesting people. He goes to school but before long he is convicted of being a shuteye and gets thrown in jail. Suddenly his home in Lucy, Mississippi is looking a whole lot better. This is a wildly inventive novel about a boy who yearns to run away only to discover that there's no place like home. This ebook features an illustrated personal history of M. E. Kerr including rare images from the author's collection.

The Journal Book for Teachers of At-risk College Writers Susan Gardner, Toby Fulwiler, 1999 Educators across the grades and across the curriculum have long recognized the usefulness of journals to help student writers. But what about basic writers, learning disabled students and nontraditional and returning students? One of the values of journal writing is its accessibility yet no one has seemed to consider how at-risk students might benefit. With this new collection, the first of its kind, Susan Gardner and Toby Fulwiler provide much needed advice. The authors of these essays are all experienced teachers of at-risk writers both at two and four year colleges. They know the at-risk students they are describing. Some readers will recognize the students as basic writers in basic writing courses. Others will find chapters written by writing center directors who serve a variety of students we might term as at-risk. There are also chapters from educators who work specifically with Deaf students, ADHD students and learning disabled students. Each one describes uses of the journal and the adjustments to the assignment that make the journal such an accessible and instructive writing genre.

PROMO !! Roger McIntosh, 2011-02-10 In the current climate of behind-the-scenes comedy sitcoms like Extras, Moving Wallpaper, The Office and Airline etc, this book focuses on the world of promotions. The book is centred on and around one freelance event manager who works for various promotional and marketing companies. Most of the activities are centred on one particular staffing company called The Agency. The promotional and events industry is a very diverse and fickle business and most of the personnel that work in the industry have a very strong character base in order to survive its ever changing demands Most are self employed out of work resting actors dancers singers or students making some extra cash But ultimately they are a breed to themselves enticed by the perceived rock n roll lifestyle and financial rewards
