

Basketball

Courtside Chronicles

Upon the court, where sneakers squeak and slide,
The ball in flight, hopes soaring just as high.
Each pass and play, an artistry inside,
A dance of fierce resolve beneath the sky.

Defenders leap, their shadows merge and twist,
Offense with skill, they weave and they persist.
The clock ticks down, each second does insist,
A shot is made, a moment not to be missed.

From start to end, the players tell a tale,
Of sweat, of dreams, of wins, and some fails.
But in each game, their spirits never frail,
For in their heart, the love for hoops prevails.

Foote, 1992. Literature Compact Laurie G. Kirsznar, Stephen R. Mandell, 1996-10 The editors' practice is to place nontraditional or contemporary works where they belong alongside the classics to integrate new with old familiar with unfamiliar inviting students to discover new works and to see familiar works in new contexts. Thus their goal in this anthology remains what it has been from the start not just to expand the literary canon but also to expand the personal canons of both students and instructors. The goal is to encourage students both to appreciate works representing diverse literary subjects, styles, and perspectives and to recognize their own roles in bringing these diverse works into their personal literary canons by reading, reacting to, and writing about them.
