D (1897) James Augustus Henry Murray, 1897 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles: part 1. H (1901) James Augustus Henry Murray, 1901 Opera in Translation Adriana Șerban, Kelly Kar Yue Chan, 2020-10-15 This volume covers aspects of opera translation within the Western world and in Asia as well as some of opera's many travels between continents, countries, languages and cultures and also between genres and media. The concept of adaptation is a thread running through the sixteen contributions which encompass a variety of composers, operas, periods and national traditions. Song translation, libretto translation, surtitling, subtitling are discussed from a range of theoretical and methodological perspectives. Exploration of aspects such as the relationship between language and music, multimodality, intertextuality, cultural and linguistic transfer, multilingualism, humour, identity and stereotype, political ideology, the translator's voice and the role of the audience is driven by a shared motivation: a love of opera and of the beauty it has never ceased to provide through the centuries and admiration for the people who write, compose, perform, direct, translate or otherwise contribute to making the joy of opera a part of our lives.

Translation as Home is a collection of autobiographical essays by Ilan Stavans that eloquently and unequivocally make the case that translation is not only a career but a way of life. Born in Mexico City, Ilan Stavans is an essayist, anthologist, literary scholar, translator and editor. Stavans has changed languages at various points in his life from Yiddish to Spanish to Hebrew and English. A controversial public intellectual, he is the world's authority on hybrid languages and on the history of dictionaries. His influential studies on Spanglish have redefined many fields of study and he has become an international authority on translation as a mechanism of survival. This collection deals with Stavans's three selves: Mexican, Jewish and American. The volume presents his recent essays, some previously unpublished, addressing the themes of language, identity and translation and emphasizing his work in Latin American and Jewish studies. It also features conversations between Stavans and writers, educators and translators including Regina Galasso, the author of the introduction and editor of the volume.
