Encyclopedia of Chinese Philosophy Antonio S. Cua, 2013-11-05 Featuring contributions from the world's most highly esteemed Asian philosophy scholars, this important new encyclopedia covers the complex and increasingly influential field of Chinese thought from earliest recorded times to the present day. Including coverage on the subject previously unavailable to English speakers, the Encyclopedia sheds light on the extensive range of concepts, movements, philosophical works, and thinkers that populate the field. It includes a thorough survey of the history of Chinese philosophy, entries on all major thinkers from Confucius to Mou Zongsan, essential topics such as aesthetics, moral philosophy, philosophy of government, and philosophy of literature, surveys of Confucianism in all historical periods, Zhou, Han, Tang, and onward, and in key regions outside China, schools of thought such as Mohism, Legalism, and Chinese Buddhism, trends in contemporary Chinese philosophy, and more.

Notions of Time in Chinese Historical Thinking Junjie Huang, John B. Henderson, 2006 Implicit in its title, this book aims at giving readers a better understanding of Chinese notions of time in the tradition of Chinese historical thinking. Time is a basic subject of humanistic enquiry, and this book consists of nine essays which have given in-depth studies to Chinese ways of conceiving time from a variety of perspectives, with the philosophical, historical, and anthropological being most salient. The subject matter therefore straddles several disciplines, and individual essays will be of interest to different clusters of scholars. It is also a stimulating book for lay readers who are broadly familiar with Chinese history.
