Lesson Text: Galatians 5:18-6:10
Lesson Title: Holy Living in the Spirit

Introduction

The Christian life is a daily struggle between the flesh and the Spirit. The flesh, which we are by nature, is always and ever causing many problems for the believer. But the Holy Spirit is strength and guidance.

In our lesson text, the Apostle Paul describes the Spirit's work in our lives as the Spirit the flesh and continuously breaks us. Paul has been talking about the importance of love and how it fulfills the Law and about the danger of not having, which results in being and committing our actions as behaviors.

Where does the believer get the strength to live and walk when it is not natural to do that? Where does the believer know which path to take or which manner to follow? How does the believer know how to live? The answer is within the Law of the Spirit.

No external law or set of rules can give the strength needed to live the Christian life. No external law can give us a desire to obey or fill us with love. No external law can produce holy living. The Law can provide direction to a person and encourage us which to live. But it does not power to produce a holy life. Paul wants the Christians to know holy living is possible only through the Spirit of God.

A Choice to Make (Galatians 5:18)

Galatians

"That if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law."

Every believer in Jesus Christ has the Holy Spirit. At the moment of faith, the Spirit indwells the believer and seals him unto the day of redemption (Ephesians 1:13). It is the Holy Spirit, not the Law, who is our guide, presence, and the One who empowers us to live the Christian life and overcome the flesh.

"That if ye be led of the Spirit" means the believer must make a choice to follow the leadership of the Spirit. Christians are "led of the Spirit." The Spirit takes the initiative to lead, but we must make a choice to follow Him against the pull

Leadership Lessons from the Trump Presidency Douglas G. Long, 2020-05-20 This book seeks to demonstrate that we can learn from both good and bad leaders Part One looks at President Trump s behaviour from inauguration to impeachment The ancient Greek concepts of Kairos and Chronos are used to indicate that Trump was almost a natural fit for the US of 2017 Part Two considers the consequences of his behaviour on the US the world at large and for leadership overall There is a temptation to consider only good leaders when asking what we can learn from others This book explores the issue of what can be learned from any person in a leadership role no matter what the value judgement we make of them Part One explores Trump s behaviour up to the moment of impeachment and the longer term residual impacts this will have once his term as President is over It shows that our value judgements tend to be based on perception and a priori assumptions Part Two explores what we can learn from the Trump event no matter what our leadership role Disruption is endemic in today s world Today it often seems that we are born live and die in three quite different worlds Yet at its core things have changed very little Oligarchy has been a reality since time immemorial Unless we are first unfrozen from the status quo change tends to be more cosmetic than actual Donald Trump s presidency has the potential to be the thawing agent that could enable real change through which new forms of both democracy and capitalism might emerge across the world

Biblical Hermeneutics in the Metamodern Mood Seán M. W. McGuire, 2024-07-23 Why do contemporary Christians seem to routinely talk past one another amid contentious theological debates In this illuminating study Sean M W McGuire argues that interpreters lack of self critical reflection on the process of interpretation and compounding cultural factors are problematizing interpretive practice Thus to work through difficult topics Christians need to develop the ability to reflect on the complexity informing how they interpret Scripture and how they see others interpreting Scripture so that they can coherently and constructively discuss their interpretations with others Grounding the study in the discipline of practical theology McGuire utilizes the cultural theory of metamodernism and the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer 1900 2002 together with a proposed revision of the Wesleyan Quadrilateral to develop a paradigm for observing and describing differences in biblical interpretive practice Using current debates regarding sexuality as an illustrative example the project reveals the complexity underlying contemporary interpretive practice showing that amid this complexity the prioritization or lack thereof of theological reflection sources prompts certain interpretive conclusions Perceiving the multivalent nature of interpretation readers will be equipped to think carefully and critically about how they come to their biblical interpretive conclusions and how those conclusions inform transformed living in Christ
