There are around 600 recipes in this book. You will find anything from purple hull peas to jalapeno cornbread, chocolate pie to frog legs, Dutch oven recipes to gifts in a jar, roadkill to potato soup. There is such a wide variety you've got a lot of recipes to choose from. I wrote this cookbook to share with others the delicious foods we grew up on and have passed on to our children. These recipes bring back childhood memories when our families would get together and have home cooked meals. Now a days people don't want to cook from scratch because it is so much easier to just go out and get fast food. I miss the days of home cooked meals. I hope these meals put a smile on your face, bring back some childhood memories and will allow your families to spend some quality time together. Enjoy. Like Never Before Sylvia Lett, 2008 Danielle and Greg had a wonderful romance at university but harsh realities in the form of Greg's ambitions and Danielle's interfering father tore them apart. Such contests range in importance from Spam contests at county fairs to the granddaddy of them all, the Pillsbury Bake Off in San Francisco where the grand prize is a cool million. In between are contests local and national sponsored by agricultural groups, corporations and neighborhoods. Competing in these contests are not only casual entrants but testers, mostly women for whom the recipe contest is a way of life. Journalist Amy Sutherland follows a small group of such testers through a year on the contest circuit beginning with the National Chicken Cook off and culminating in the Pillsbury Bake Off. Along the way we'll be introduced to well known cook off luminaries as well as to some of the most bizarre cooks and the recipes concocted for their national contests. Red August H.L.
