illuminate each other's achievements, problems and limitations in a range of areas from urban history to religious faith. Privileging neither Europe nor China, this work offers an innovative move away from relativism and multiculturalism towards an analysis that focuses on relationships between social choices and consequences. As a result, both common and divergent perspectives on the human condition emerge for discussion. Drawing upon a rich literature of cross-societal studies, Dialogues Across Civilizations generates reflection on themes central to the study of world history as well as European and Asian history.

World Civilizations Peter N. Stearns, 2007. The primary goal of World Civilizations is to present a truly global history since the development of agriculture and herding to the present. Overview of World History. Readers interested in the history and development of civilization worldwide.

History on Trial Gary B. Nash, Charlotte Antoinette Crabtree, Ross E. Dunn, 2000. Reprint.

European Integration Jorgen Orstrom Moller, 2003-08-01. A clear guide to current EU institutions, practices and policies; this is also an informed insider's account of how they have emerged in their present form with clues on future change. The mixture of analysis and history, description and prescription works well because the author has had a ringside seat but retains a cool Nordic non-partisan detachment. The hints he offers to those, for example in Asia, considering following a similar path to regional integration represent the distilled wisdom of a career in balancing economic benefits and national sensitivities. As his story shows, it can be done. Lord Kerr, Former Head of the UK Diplomatic Service, now Chairman of Imperial College London and Deputy Chairman of Royal Dutch Shell.
