

Imperialism

Imperialism is the act of a stronger country taking over a weaker country or territory and socially, politically, or economically controlling the new territory.

Causes of Imperialism

- Greed - Desire for more profit
- Nationalism - Europeans thought they were great and wanted to spread their culture
- Industrialization - Need for resources
- Missionary impulses - Spread religion (Christianity)
- Social Darwinism - Many Europeans thought they were superior to non-Europeans
- White Man's Burden - Responsibility to "help" people in Asia and Africa to justify imperialism
- Catalanism - Idea that Africans and Asians could not rule themselves, therefore Europeans had to step in.

The cartoon below depicts non-Europeans being "saved" and taken into civilization by Westerners. This cartoon is symbolic of the White Man's Burden mentality that existed.

Location of Imperialism

Imperialism was not contained to one specific area. Territories across the globe were targeted including North America, Africa, Asia and Australia. See map below.

Encyclopedia of Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike
