Market Challenge

Aviation industry professionals responsible for fuel supply contracts have been seeking an alternative to large-cargo (C/L) pricing. Rather than expensive reports which effectively assess prices along a cargo shipping lane from the Arab Gulf, OPIS450 assesses the busy barge market around Europe's refining and oil storage capital in Rotterdam.

How We Help

The OPIS450 Europe Jet Fuel Report delivers the price of the day, verified by our editors for compliance with IOSCO International Organization of Securities Commissions. Uniquely, OPIS makes a price assessment for each of the 450 minutes between 3am and 4:30pm London time, shown in a chart on page one of the report. The daily price is the average of these 450 marks. The report also provides contract price averages for benchmarking against other data sources.

Features

- Used to price millions of tonnes of jet fuel supply to Europe
- Derived from five bids/offers and trades all day long via an electronic trading platform
- Benchmarked by Lufthansa, Europe's largest airline
- Benchmarked by Vitol, the world's largest oil trader
- Concise and relevant spot market commentary
- A single source at an affordable price
- Complemented by the OPIS450 Europe Jet Ticket, needing five priceCOVERY moments of the trading day
