

- Lexington:
- Town in Middlesex County, Massachusetts.
 - Site of the first battle between the British and Americans.
 - In the Battle of Lexington, the Americans were forced to retreat under heavy British fire; 8 of their number were killed in the brief encounter on the village green.
- Concord:
- Second site of Battles of Lexington and Concord.
 - British entered Concord (April 18, 1775), where they destroyed some military supplies.
 - On the return march to Boston, the British were attacked by hundreds of militiamen firing at them from behind stoned walls....the British suffered 250 casualties---and also great humiliation at being so badly mauled by "amateur" fighters.
- Battle of Bunker Hill:
- Occurred 2 months after the Battles of Lexington and Concord..... June 17, 1775.
 - A colonial militia of Massachusetts farmers fortified Breed's Hill (which was next to Bunker Hill, for which the battle was wrongly named).
 - The British attacked the colonists' position and managed to take the hill, suffering over a thousand casualties.
 - Americans claimed a big victory.... They succeeded in inflicting heavy losses on the attacking British army.
- Second Continental Congress (1775):
- Met in Philadelphia in May 1775, soon after the fighting broke out in Massachusetts.
 - Consisted of delegates who thought the colonies should declare their independence (these delegates were mainly from New England) and delegates who hoped the conflict would be resolved by negotiating a new relationship with Great Britain (these delegates were mainly from the middle colonies).
 - Congress took military actions, as well as making efforts for peace.
- Declaration of the Causes and Necessities for Taking Up Arms:
- Adopted by the Continental Congress.... Called on the colonies to provide troops.
 - George Washington was appointed the commander-in-chief of a new colonial army and sent to Boston to lead the Massachusetts militia and volunteer units from other colonies.
- Olive Branch Petition:
- Sent to King George III by colonial delegates.
 - Delegates pledged their loyalty and asked the king to intercede with Parliament to secure peace and the protection of colonial rights.
 - Sent because many in the colonies did not want independence, for they valued their heritage and Britain's protection, but they did want a change in their relationship with Britain.
- Prohibitory Act (1775):
- Declared the colonies in rebellion.
 - Issued by Parliament, King George ignored the congress' plea and agreed to the act.
 - A few months later, Parliament forbade all trade and shipping between England and the colonies.
- Thomas Paine; Common Sense (1776):
- Pamphlet written by Thomas Paine, a recent immigrant to the colonies.
 - Paine's essay argued in clear and forceful language for the colonies becoming independent states and breaking all political ties with the British monarchy.
 - Paine argued that it was contrary to common sense for a large continent to be ruled by a small and distant island and for people to pledge allegiance to a king whose government was corrupt and whose laws were unreasonable.
- Declaration of Independence:
- Written by Thomas Jefferson; adopted by Congress on July 4th, 1776.
 - The declaration listed specific grievances against George III's government and also expressed the basic principles that justified revolution.... asked for American independence.
 - Said that "all men are created equal", and that they are given "certain unalienable rights" including "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."
- Thomas Jefferson:
- The author of the Declaration of Independence (1776)
 - The third President of the United States (1801-1809)
 - One of the most influential Founding Fathers for his promotion of the ideals of Republicanism in the United States.
- Patriots:
- Those who supported American independence.
 - An estimated 40% of the colonial population joined the Patriot side (about 2.6 million lived in the 13 colonies or states during the war).
- Loyalists (Tories):
- Those who remained loyal to Britain and did not want American independence.
 - Also called Tories (after the majority party in Parliament).
 - An estimated 20-30% of the colonial population joined the Loyalist side (about 520,000-780,000 people).
 - Almost 60,000 American Tories fought and died next to British soldiers, supplied them with arms and food, and joined in raiding parties that pillaged Patriot homes and farms.
