Swayed Impressions English Edition:

An English Girl's First Impressions of Burmah Beth Ellis, 2019-12-06 In An English Girl's First Impressions of Burmah Beth Ellis offers a vivid and introspective account of her experiences as she navigates the cultural landscape of Burma. Written in an evocative yet accessible style, the book blends personal narrative with keen observations on the rich tapestry of Burmese life in the early 20th century. Ellis's ability to capture both the beauty and complexity of her surroundings is enhanced by her sensitive prose, which draws readers into her emotional and intellectual explorations, all set against the colonial backdrop of British expansion in Southeast Asia. Beth Ellis, an intrepid traveler and keen observer of society, was influenced by her own experiences in a cross-cultural environment. Her background as a member of the British expatriate community and her desire to understand diverse cultures informs her narrative. Through her encounters with local people and traditions, Ellis reveals not only the allure of Burma but also the nuances of colonial relationships and the challenge of cultural misunderstanding that permeates her journey. For readers with an interest in travel literature, colonial history, or personal narratives, this book offers a richly textured portrait of a land and a time that might otherwise be overlooked. Ellis's enlightening reflections invite modern readers to reconsider their own cultural assumptions while appreciating the poignant beauty of human connection across boundaries.

The Ladies' Repository, 1852 RAQUEL (English Version) Sergio Mora Cantoral, 2019-06-01 Raquel is a novel that alludes to thousands of women who experience violence in an abrupt and brutal manner that leaves its mark not only on them but also on their families and, in less visible ways, on society as a whole. Violence against women has escalated alarmingly in Mexico. This increase has not only been quantitative but also in terms of cruelty, so that when leaving home, the feeling is one of fear of small and large-scale violence, harassment, rape, kidnapping, death. In the midst of this contemporary ferocity, Raquel presents us with a story of strong, courageous risk-taking women who are also companions of men committed to respectful relationships. A story where the mother, with her example, transmits strength and demonstrates to her daughters every day how to value themselves, take care of themselves, and be assertive. Raquel presents a clear position: the person responsible for violence is the one who commits it; the State is the guarantor of Human Rights, and the only task of the victim is to get ahead, relying on who she decides and in the way she can. Dark alleys, majestic buildings, and an imposing mountain in Guanajuato are the setting for a novel that takes us from despair to hope from frustration to pleasure and from fear to joy A novel that contains enough elements to make evident the fragility of the individual but how resoundingly strong he or she can be with others Raquel is like violence direct clear raw and at the same time powerful Raquel its protagonist kidnapped by a group of criminals who systematically use women for their own satisfaction takes us by the hand to discover organized crime networks and their alliances with the authorities while showing us what strength faith and the love of the family can achieve What connects us with the people we love What are the reaches of the psyche in extreme situations Can science prove what are the true limits of the mind Raquel invites us to leave aside the known and rational world and to enjoy the possibilities of intuition faith imagination the holistic that transcends time and space

Shades of Authority Stephen James,2007-01-01 What is the relationship between poetry and power Should poetry be considered a mode of authority or an impotent medium And why is it that the modern poets most commonly regarded as authoritative are precisely those whose works wrestle with a sense of artistic inadequacy Such questions lie at the heart of Shades of Authority prompting fresh insights into three of the most important poets of recent decades Robert Lowell Geoffrey Hill and Seamus Heaney Through attentive close readings James shows how their responsiveness to matters of political and cultural import lends weight to the idea of poetry as authoritative utterance but also how each is exercised by a sense of the limitations and liabilities of language itself
