

Unit 1: The Global Tapestry Exam Study Guide

c. 1200 - c. 1450

Topic 1.1 Developments in East Asia from c. 1200 to c. 1450

Learning Objective Explain the systems of government employed by Chinese dynasties and how they developed over time.	Historical Developments Empires and states in Afro-Eurasia and the Americas demonstrated continuity, innovation, and diversity in the 13th century. This included the Song Dynasty of China, which utilized traditional methods of Confucianism and imperial bureaucracy to maintain and justify its rule.	1. Describe Song China (include SPICE-T characteristics). Song China was one of the first major dynasties of China and it lived under strict rules of Confucianism and imperial bureaucracy to maintain its rule. The economy of Song China depended on free peasant and artisan labor. Their economy flourished because of increased product capacity, expanding trade networks, and innovations in agriculture and manufacturing. 2. Explain the influence of Confucianism on Song China's political system. Song China maintained and justified its rule with strict confucian beliefs that gave power to the patriarchy. This made politics in Song China dominated by men and where women were seen as fragile beings that were made with the purpose to obey men. This also created the civil service exam in Song China which influenced their imperial bureaucracy. The civil service exam would determine who could serve as an bureaucrat and who could enforce and carry out the policies of the empire.
Learning Objective Explain the effects of Chinese cultural traditions on East Asia over time.	Historical Developments Chinese cultural traditions continued, and they influenced neighboring regions. Cultural traditions: • Ethical beliefs in East Asia • Influence of Neo-Confucianism and Buddhism in East Asia • Confucian traditions of both respect for and expected deference from women • Chinese literary and scholarly traditions and their spread to Heian Japan and Korea Buddhism, and its core beliefs, continued to shape societies in Asia and included a variety of branches, schools, and practices.	3. Explain the influence of Confucianism on Song China's society and culture. Confucianism created this culture in Song China in which men were the superior species over women who were seen as inferior fragile beings that needed to be ordered around. Women in Song China had little rights and they were rarely ever allowed to leave the house unless accompanied by a male. Confucianism also add strict cultural fashion standards on women whos role was to make themselves pretty and objects for men. One of these traditions was the practice of foot binding where women would tightly bound their feet from a young age and soak their feet in hot water to bend the bone and deform their foot. This was so they could fit their feet into incredibly tiny shoes because it was seen as an act of innocence and docile behavior which was attractive to men in Song China.
