Ambivalent Affinities Jennifer Dominique Jones,2023-10-12 In the early twenty first century comparisons between the modern civil rights movement and the movement for marriage equality reached a fever pitch These comparisons however have a longer history During the five decades after World War II political ideas about same sex intimacy and gender nonconformity most often categorized as homosexuality appeared in the campaigns of civil rights organizations Black liberal elected officials segregationists and far right radicals Deployed in complex and at times contradictory ways political ideas about homosexuality and later lesbian gay bisexual and transgender subjects became tethered to conceptualizations of Blackness and racial equality In this interdisciplinary historical study Jennifer Dominique Jones reveals the underexamined origins of comparisons between Black and LGBT political constituencies in the modern civil rights movement and white supremacist backlash Foregrounding an intersectional framing of postwar political histories Jones demonstrates how the shared non normative status of Blackness and homosexuality facilitated comparisons between subjects and political visions associated with both Drawing upon organizational records manuscript collections newspaper accounts and visual and textual ephemera this study traces a long conflicting relationship between Black and LGBT political identities that continues to the present day

Religion, Religious Organisations and Development Carole Rakodi,2016-04-04 This collection adds to a burgeoning literature concerned with the roles played by religions in development The authors do not assume that religion and religious organisations can be used to achieve development objectives or that religiously inspired development work is more holistic transformative and authentic Instead they subject such assumptions to critical and as far as possible objective scrutiny focusing on how adherents of several religious traditions and a variety of organisations affiliated with different religions perceive the idea of development and attempt to contribute to its objectives Geographically chapters in the volume encompass Africa South Asia and the Asia Pacific Four of the papers have an international focus providing a preliminary framework for analysing the role of religion in development considering the roles played by faith inspired organisations in two regions the Asia Pacific and Sub Saharan Africa and analysing transnational Muslim NGOs The individual case studies focus on nine countries India Kenya Pakistan Nigeria Tanzania Sudan Malawi Sri Lanka South Africa consider four religions Islam Hinduism Christianity Buddhism and can be grouped under four themes they consider religion wellbeing and inequality the roles of religious NGOs in development whether and how religious organisations influence respond to or resist social change and whether religious service providers reach the poor Finally practice notes show how three religious development organisations try to put their principles into practice This book was published as a special double issue of Development in Practice The Best of The Good Apple Newspaper ,1995 A compilation of 49 of the best complete teaching units printed in the Good Apple newspaper featuring multidisciplinary group activities and a variety of reproducible student pages
