IEEE Standards Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, 1993 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie, Bertha Tannehill, Neltje Marie Tannehill Shimer, 1919 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries America's Relation to the World Conflict and to the Coming Peace American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1917 Stealth Conflicts Virgil Hawkins, 2016-12-05

Many of the world's deadliest conflicts are largely ignored becoming off the radar stealth conflicts. How can this be possible in a world with unprecedented levels of access to information and unprecedented levels of attention and resources being devoted to foreign affairs? Virgil Hawkins reveals and explains the highly distorted and assimilated responses to foreign conflicts by major actors in the world. He examines the agenda setting processes of policy makers, the media, the public and academics in relation to foreign conflicts. Using a vast array of detailed examples, he systematically unravels the internal dynamics and external influences experienced by these actors and in so doing, he brings the academic agenda into the loop of the conflict response agenda setting process for the first time. With agenda setting research tending to focus on the question of why a response to a particular event or issue occurred, this book furthers research by focusing equally on why a response did not occur. The volume is critically important in understanding why actors do and do not respond to foreign conflicts.

Comoros Investment and Business Guide Volume 1 Strategic and Practical Information IBP USA, 2013-08

Comoros Investment and Business Guide Strategic and Practical Information Regional Cooperation for Peace and Development Brendan Howe, 2018-11-09. Faced with significant security challenges in recent years, Japan and South Korea have both sought to raise their international profile through peacebuilding, development, humanitarian assistance and human security. This book assesses the past, present and future potential of these niche diplomacy initiatives undertaken by Japan and South Korea, largely in Southeast Asia. The book concludes that not only do such nontraditional security channels have the potential to achieve meaningful change for partners and beneficiaries, but they could also form the basis of future confidence building and security cooperation between Japan and South Korea, which have to date achieved little in the field of traditional security cooperation despite facing many shared challenges. Working across disciplines and national boundaries, the contributors to this volume argue that policy prioritization in the fields of peacebuilding, development and human security by Tokyo and Seoul could have the potential to accrue wider benefits not only to the Northeast Asian actors and the Southeast Asian partners, but also to wider regional and even global security communities. At a time when the role of so-called middle powers is receiving increasing levels of attention both domestically and internationally, this book will be of considerable interest to scholars of Japan and the ROK, as well as development, security and foreign policy researchers more broadly.
