Hispanic Muslims in the United States Victor Hugo Cuartas, 2020-03-31 The empirical case in this study is that of the Hispanic Catholic converts to Islam in the Washington DC Metropolitan and New Jersey areas of the United States The central research question is To what extent do Hispanic Muslim converts play a role in making different choices regarding religious commitment and practice The argument is that not only do both the more and less active converts play a central role in making choices during the pre affiliation and post affiliation stages but that these choices can often be strategic in nature as they practice the new religion in the United States These choices are shaped by multiple factors This contributes to a new understanding of the prevailing debates among Muslims in Europe and the United States on the nature of Muslim minorities in the West that Muslims here are not merely transplanted but are active participants of diverse expressions of local Islam The evidence in my research shows that being less active does not mean converts do not play a role or make choices Both more active and less active converts make choices based on multiple factors This is especially significant as the main aim of this thesis is to show that the converts make choices and play a role in the post affiliation stage and that these often have strategic elements

No One Left Behind Darrell J. Fasching, 2011-07-15 1 You have heard it said that on the day of judgment only Christians will be saved and all others will be consigned to eternal damnation but I say to you that the gospel proclaims salvation for the whole human race 2 You have heard it said that non Christians are strangers who will not enter the Kingdom of God but I say to you that God enters our lives through the very presence of the stranger 3 You have heard it said that heretics and sinners will have no place in the Kingdom of God but I say to you that to reject even the least of these is to reject God and God's messiah 4 You have heard it said that human beings can be saved in no other name than that of Jesus but I say to you that the name Jesus means we are saved in the name of a God who cannot be named or imaged 5 You have heard it said that only a chosen remnant can be saved but I say to you that a saving remnant saves not itself but the whole human race of which it is a part 6 You have heard it said that in the final judgment many will be consigned to the eternal fires but I say to you Gods judgment is a refining fire which transforms and saves rather than destroys The final truth is that our God is the savior of the whole human race and especially all believers 1Timothy 4 10 Religion and Science Fiction James H.
