Documenting Mobility in the Japanese Empire and Beyond Takahiro Yamamoto, 2022-11-07 This book tackles the question of border control in and around imperial Japan in the first half of the twentieth century with a specific focus on its documentation regime It explores the institutional development media and literary discourses and on 1 the ground practices of documentary identification in the Japanese empire and the places visited by its subjects The contributing authors covering such regions as Korea Manchuria Taiwan Siberia Australia and the United States place the question of individual identity in the eyes of the respective governments in dialogue with the global developments of the identification and mobility control practices The chapters suggest the importance of focusing more than previously on the narrative of individual identification not as a tool for creating nation states but as a tool for generating strengthening and maintaining asymmetrical relationships between people of different socioeconomic backgrounds who moved in and out of empires This book joins the effort in the recent scholarship in migration history to highlight experiences of migrants beyond the transatlantic world and that in East Asian history to investigate the space and connections beyond the boundaries of the nation states By bringing together the analyses on the trans Pacific mobility and Japan's imperial expansion and its aftermath in East Asia it shows a complex interplay between state power and moving individuals two forces whose relationships went far beyond simple competition

BEYOND THE PALE Andy Carter, 2019-11-05 In the second half of the 19th century Britain ruled the largest and most culturally diverse empire the world had ever seen yet non European faces were a rarity in all but the larger port cities For the majority of Britons the colonies were seen as distant and exotic outposts populated by natives who were frequently characterised as alien and uncivilised Against this background the arrival of a touring party of Australian Aborigines in 1868 caused something of a sensation Initially viewed as a curiosity they soon won the public over with their athleticism and demeanour Over the following decades others followed in their footsteps well off Parsee amateur enthusiasts in the 1880s mixed race West Indian teams in the 1900s and the first Indian side composed of representatives of all her major communities in 1911 From the 1890s onwards the first individual Black and Asian players also began to appear for English club and county sides They came from a wide range of backgrounds some were princes others plantation workers and their stories once they reached Britain were equally diverse All of their stories are part of a tale in which cricket that most English of institutions became a catalyst for multi cultural Britain and helped shape emerging national identities in the

Beyond the Epic Gene D. Phillips, 2006-11-24 Two time Academy Award winner Sir David Lean 1908 1991 was one of the most prominent directors of the twentieth century responsible for the classics The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 Lawrence of Arabia 1962 and Doctor Zhivago 1965 British born Lean asserted himself in Hollywood as a major filmmaker with his epic storytelling and panoramic visions of history but he started out as a talented film editor and director in Great Britain As a result he brought an art house mentality to blockbuster films Combining elements of biography and film criticism Beyond the Epic The Life and Films of David Lean uses screenplays and production histories to assess Lean s body of work Author Gene D Phillips interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director s life and career Phillips also explores Lean s lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson s Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean s approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry

War Beyond the Battlefield David Grondin, 2013-09-13 In an effort to make sense of war beyond the battlefield in studying the wars that were captured under the rubric of the War on Terror this special issue book seeks to explore the complex spatial relationships between war and the spaces that one is not used to thinking of as the battlefield It focuses on the conflicts that still animate the spaces and places where violence has been launched and that the war has not left untouched In focusing on war beyond the battlefield it is not that the battlefield as the place where war is waged has gone in smoke or has borne out of importance it is rather the case that the battlefield has been displaced re-designed re-shaped and rethought through new spatializing practices of warfare These new spaces of war new in the sense that they are not traditionally thought of as spaces where war takes place or is brought to are television screens cellular phones and bandwidth George W Bush's ranch in Crawford Texas videogames popular culture sites news media blogs and so on These spaces of war beyond the battlefield are crucial to understanding what goes on the battlefield in Iraq Afghanistan or in other fronts of the War on Terror such as the homeland to understand how terror has globally been waged beyond the battlefield This book was originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics
