Dear Friends,

Many of you ask what our lives are like now that our retreat centers are closed. Our Sisters live independently in apartments or in communities in places where we once had retreat centers. I will speak a bit about our lives in what is called the Village. Nine of us live in the Resurrection Village in Chicago. This is a large senior citizen complex of five buildings housing four hundred residents. It was originally built by the Resurrection Sisters who also built a nearby hospital and high school to serve the families in the area.

What is it like to live here? The Village is a friendly, welcoming residential home. There are a few couples, but most women and men are singles. Most of us live in one-bedroom apartments. The main meal of the day is provided in a common dining room or folks can take the meal to their apartments. Each apartment has a kitchenette to prepare other meals. Each has a stove and a sink and refrigerator. There is a simple chapel designed to accommodate walkers and wheelchairs. Four days a week we have Mass at 8:00 a.m. For Sunday we have a vigil Mass and one on Sunday morning. There are special study groups, grief groups, and film activities. There are seasonal parties, musical evenings, bus trips to grocery stores and various Chicago restaurants and shops. The grounds are large and made for walking, reading, or visiting.

What about what we have always called "our Cenacle life"? There are many things we miss and are finding different expressions of cherished values. We know we are fortunate to have daily Mass. It is amazing to see the impact of a smile or a simple greeting. We gather on Saturday afternoons for "lectio" prayer. We prepare the readings for Sunday and take turns leading the prayer. We faith share; we pray for those who have asked for our prayers each week and check in with each other. We have come to cherish this time. Our life is semi-retired, most of us say. We no longer have major responsibilities. We have time for solitude, time to contemplate eternity, and time for plenty of province and congregational meetings thanks to Zoom. Right now, we are having a series of generational meetings with those who are in our age group in all of our provinces in our various countries. We are meeting people we have not had an opportunity to meet before. We are considering questions our entire order needs to consider for the future.

What about ministry you ask? Many of us can continue to talk with some people in Chicago or via Zoom. The great high seasons of Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany are located in our rear-view mirrors. Lent will soon ask us to accompany Jesus as He shows how completely He embraces human life.

So we are located in ordinary time. In our weather news each evening our forecasters tell us how much new light increases each day. As we look around our entire, suffering world, we don't see light increase each day and wonder if wars will continue to escalate. Our American political scene remains contentious and will likely increase as the general election nears. We understand the intensity of the psalms and prayers in the scriptures. We have four hundred neighbors and can be sure some are lonely, are having a bad day, or are unwell. Small gestures are greatly appreciated.

This year we will spend our Sundays in Mark's Gospel. Bonnie Thurston, a poet and scripture scholar comments that Mark's world was similar to our current world. Both are worlds of conflict, of suffering, of common folk, of many deserts where God bends down and cares for people directly. For God to work, all of us need to ask for God's saving help for ourselves and our world diligently.

Let us join together in prayer. If you come to Chicago, stop in to see us at the Village.

Sr. Ann Goggin, r.c.

The Cenacle Scroll English Edition:

Jesus and the Dead Sea Scrolls John Bergsma, 2019-09-10 A major new work on the Dead Sea Scrolls the oldest sacred documents of Judaism which reveals their surprising connections to early Christianity A luminous treatment of a fascinating subject Highly recommended Scott Hahn author of The Fourth Cup From award winning scholar John Bergsma comes an intriguing book that reveals new insights on the Essenes a radical Jewish community predating Christianity whose existence beliefs and practices are often overlooked in the annals of history Bergsma reveals how this Jewish sect directly influenced the beliefs sacraments and practices of early Christianity and offers new information on how Christians lived their lives worshipped and eventually went on to influence the Roman Empire and Western civilization Looking to Hebrew scripture and Jewish tradition Bergsma helps to further explain how a simple Jewish peasant could go on to inspire a religion and a philosophy that still resonates 2 000 years later In this enriching and exciting exploration Bergsma demonstrates how the Dead Sea Scrolls the world s greatest modern archaeological discovery can shed light on the Church as a sacred society that offered hope redemption and salvation to its member Ultimately these mysterious writings are a time machine that can transport us back to the ancient world deepen our appreciation of Scripture and strengthen our understanding of the Christian faith An accessible introduction This is a handy entry point for readers unfamiliar with Essenes or those interested in the Dead Sea Scrolls Publishers Weekly

The Sepulchre of Christ and the Medieval West Colin Morris, 2005-03-17 What was the impact of the tomb of Christ in Jerusalem on the history of western Europe Colin Morris shows that the Holy Sepulchre had a vital influence on pilgrimage the Crusades the cult of the Cross and art and architecture The recovery of the Tomb was a central objective of the Crusades and so Morris examines the emergence of hostility between Christendom and Islam

The Secret Legacy of Jesus Jeffrey J. Bütz, 2009-12-21 Shows how the true teachings of Jesus were passed down through the centuries and shaped the vision of the Founding Fathers Reveals for the first time the hidden link that connects James the Brother Islam the Cathars the Knights Templar and Freemasonry Shows how the Founding Fathers used these teachings enshrined in Masonic principles to build a new nation With the success of Paul s desire to impose his vision for the Church the true teachings of Jesus as preserved by his family and disciples were forced into hiding This clandestine movement was evidenced by such early groups as the Nazarenes Ebionites and Elkesaites but is generally thought to have died out when the Church of Paul branded these groups as heretics However despite the ongoing persecution by the Roman Catholic orthodoxy this underground Jewish strain of Christianity was able to survive and resist incorporation into its more powerful rival Jeffrey B tz author of The Brother of Jesus and the Lost Teachings of Christianity reveals for the first time the hidden theological link that connects James the Brother of Jesus and the Ebionites with the religion of Islam the Cathars the Knights Templar and Freemasonry In The Secret Legacy of Jesus B tz demonstrates how this centuries old underground stream of Christ s original teachings remained alive and how it surfaced again in Colonial America where the Founding

Fathers used Masonic principles rooted in Jewish Christian teachings to establish what they believed would be a New Jerusalem With the rise of a fundamentalist Christianity this potent spiritual vision was lost but B tz contends it can be recovered and used to bring about the reconciliation of Christians Jews and Muslims throughout the world In Times of Crisis and Sorrow Carol NorŽn,2020-10-06 In a single volume In Times of Crisis and Sorrow A Minister s Manual Resource Guide offers a practical and professional guide for dealing with grief sorrow crises and other difficult situations in the life of a congregation In addition to containing a wealth of new material the book also draws from the best of The Minister s Manual which has served as a well thumbed resource and a source of inspiration for more than seventy five years In Times of Crisis and Sorrow is a much needed desk reference that takes an ecumenical approach and includes a wealth of examples and valuable material such as Scripture readings poetry prayers eulogies sermons and testimonials You Don't Like the Sea Aimua Edosomwan,2011-09-30 Book Description This remorseless collection of short stories and two novellas comes up against a background of arbitrary arrests and summary executions carried out at the behest of the strongman but rather than being a profile on the abuses of power it is the individuals who are caught in the despoiling tyranny that enliven these stories Thus we have the old pensioner in You May Hang Me Now who in seeking to impress a starry eyed cub reporter finds himself the target of a survivalist group and deadly agents of state While The temptation to forgive Jacob examines a boy s reaction to a doting father implicated in mass murder Roach s demise captures a boy s grief and transformation following the death of his only surviving sibling the ruthless leader of a street gang Though set in a failing state these stories where the emotions and arbitrariness of the human character play a much larger part than one would ordinarily imagine might well have been framed in any urban jungle of the 21st century The Secrets of Early Christianity Federico Puigdevall,Francisco Javier Martínez,2017-12-15 Artifacts related to early Christianity have immeasurable value to many different groups of people they are prized by archaeologists scholars and worshipers for their connection to a religion that has shaped much of human history Yet many of these artifacts including the Shroud of Turin are controversial This book traces the beginnings of the faith through the objects associated with the religion s advent and describes what we know about the authenticity and history of some of the world s most priceless relics Pushing Sacred Boundaries in Early Judaism and the Ancient Mediterranean ,2023-06-05 This volume celebrates Jodi Magness s long and illustrious career as a scholar of archaeology early Judaism and the ancient Mediterranean world It brings together a series of studies on history archaeology and society in Roman Byzantine and Islamic Palestine Qumran and the Dead Sea Scrolls and ancient synagogues written by her colleagues students and friends The collected essays reflect the extraordinary range of historical and archaeological issues which Magness has elucidated through her outstanding work as well as make significant contributions to their respective fields Some articles publish archaeological data for the first time others re evaluate traditional assumptions within new methodological or theoretical frameworks and others proffer innovative interpretations of old data Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of
