Developmentalist Cities? Interrogating Urban Developmentalism in East Asia

,2018-11-26 Developmentalist Cities addresses the missing urban story in research on East Asian developmentalism and the missing developmentalist story in studies of East Asian urbanization It does so by promoting inter disciplinary research into the subject of urban developmentalism a term that editors Jamie Doucette and Bae Gyoonyoung Park use to highlight the particular nature of the urban as a site of and for developmentalist intervention The contributors to this volume deepen this concept by examining the legacy of how Cold War and post Cold War geopolitical economy spaces of exception from special zones to industrial districts and diverse forms of expertise have helped produce urban space in East Asia Contributors Carolyn Cartier Christina Kim Chilcote Young Jin Choi Jamie Doucette Eli Friedman Jim Glassman Heidi Gottfried Laam Hae Jinn yuh Hsu Iam Chong Ip Jin Bum Jang Soo Hyun Kim Jana M Kleibert Kah Wee Lee Seung Ook Lee Christina Moon Bae Gyoonyoung Park Hyun Bang Shin

A Study of Macao Tertiary Students' Attitudes Towards Language After the Handover Xi

Yan,2023-10-14 This book focuses on the attitudes of Macao tertiary students toward language after the handover It shares the findings of a questionnaire survey and semi structured interviews which were conducted among freshmen of the University of Macao to investigate their attitudes toward Cantonese Putonghua English and Portuguese as well as their attitudes toward Macao s language planning and language policy Utilizing a multidimensional and multilayered perspective in the study this book also demonstrates the orientations of Macao tertiary students and the correlation between their social categories gender and social class and their attitudes toward language

Architectural Conservation in Asia John H. Stubbs, Robert G. Thomson, 2016-11-10 At a time when organized heritage protection in Asia is developing at a rapid pace Architectural Conservation in Asia provides the first comprehensive overview of architectural conservation practice from Afghanistan to the Philippines The country by country analysis adopted by the book draws out local insights experiences best practice and solutions for effective cultural heritage management that will inform study and practice both in Asia and beyond Whereas architectural conservation in much of the Western world has been extensively documented this book brings together coverage of many regions where architectural conservation has been understudied Following on from the highly influential companion volumes on global architectural conservation and architectural conservation in Europe and the Americas with this book the authors extend their pioneering global examination to the dynamic and evolving field of architectural conservation in Asia Throughout the book the authors and regional experts provide local case studies and profile topics that bring depth and insight to this ambitious study As architectural conservation becomes increasingly global in practice this book will be of considerable assistance to architectural conservation practitioners site managers and students of architecture planning archaeology and heritage studies worldwide

The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes Andrew J. Moody, 2024-03-03 The Oxford Handbook of Southeast Asian Englishes is the first reference work of its kind to describe both the history and the contemporary forms functions and status of English in Southeast Asia SEA Since the arrival of English traders to Southeast Asia in the seventeenth century the English language has had a profound impact on the linguistic ecologies and the development of societies throughout the region Today countries such as Singapore and the Philippines have adopted English as a national language while in others such as Indonesia and Cambodia it is used as a foreign language of education The chapters in this volume provide a comprehensive overview of current research on a wide range of topics addressing the impact of English as a language of globalization and exploring new approaches to the spread of English in SEA The volume is divided into six parts that investigate respectively historical and contemporary English contact in SEA the structures of the Englishes spoken in different SEA nations the English language literatures of the region approaches to English in education throughout the region and resources for researching SEA Englishes The handbook will be an invaluable reference work for students and researchers in areas as diverse as contact linguistics English as a Foreign Language world Englishes and sociolinguistics

Random Riches Manfred Zollinger, 2016-03-31 Gambling is a fascinating subject which for many centuries has attracted public interest Yet despite its ubiquity gambling or gaming leads a marginal existence within the boundaries of scholarly research Providing a longue duree survey this volume promotes a historical understanding of the subject enriched with a diverse academic approach that draws upon sociology economics and psychology Each chapter in the collection is the work of a renowned scholar with a long standing interest in gambling research The contributions offer historical analyses of the medieval origins of the Gambler State and of mathematical risk calculation They cast light on the roles of different stakeholders in gambling including the playing public business and the state They provide a controversial discussion of the alleged pathological nature of chance games and the reasons for either regulating or freeing them from state control Last but not least two authors deal with country by country specifics in gaming cultures and gambling markets Taken as a whole the chapters in this volume chart the development of European gambling culture from the medieval to modern times In so doing it provides essential context for both historical and current debates about the nature of gambling and lotteries addiction to gambling poverty and social degradation on the fringes of the welfare state Review of culture ,2014 Judicial Review in Greater China Shiling Xiao,2025-06-13 This book examines the judicial review systems in the four areas of Greater China China Taiwan Hong Kong and Macau and uncovers judicial review activities of the apex courts of each region It provides a comparative assessment of judicial activism and deference The development of modern judicial review is one of the key elements of the twentieth century s legal heritage By enforcing the principles of constitutionalism the rule of law and human rights protection many courts have been vested with unprecedented powers and have played an essential role in supervising the exercise of government power through constitutional and administrative review This work investigates the most up to date aspects of judicial review in Greater China and reflects on the modern theory regarding the judicialization of politics in different political regimes democratic authoritarian and hybrid The volume collects all substantive judicial review decisions delivered in the past twenty years by the four apex courts the China s Supreme People s Court the Taiwan Constitutional Court the Court of Final Appeal of Hong Kong and the Court of Final Appeal of Macau This comprehensive dataset includes some 800 judicial review decisions presenting a comprehensive resource of fundamental baseline data for evaluating judicial review in Greater China The book will be an invaluable companion for scholars and researchers working in the areas of Comparative Public Law Comparative Constitutional Law Constitutional Politics and Asian Studies Tasting Cultures: Thoughts for Food Maria José Pires,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 A myriad of fresh possibilities is offered when researching in food studies Just like any other area of knowledge researchers here breathe the present because they have already absorbed the past and can easily try to devise the future As the question of authenticity and adaptability rises urgently we gain knowledge of the specificities where cultural heritage faces assimilation from other lifestyles in an effort to save and reshape the community and its cultural identity Food researchers have also struggled with the constructions and measuring of tastes within diverse communities by comparison to other references even though it has become harder to discern matters from expert advice and controlled mediation Therefore we invariably come across the power of representations in deep association with culture and the society that produces them for there are increasingly complex food systems bearing diverse layers of meaning Macao Telecom Laws and Regulations Handbook - Strategic Information and Basic Laws IBP.
