Hagberg,2022-10-29 This stimulating volume brings together an international team of emerging mid career and senior scholars to investigate the relations between philosophical approaches to language and the language of literature It has proven easy for philosophers of language to leave literary language to one side just as it has proven easy for literary scholars to discuss questions of meaning separately from relevant issues in the philosophy of language This volume brings the two together in mutually enlightening ways considerations of literary meaning are deepened by adding philosophical approaches just as philosophical issues are enriched by bringing them into contact or interweaving them with literary cases in all their subtlety Madame Bovary Gustave Flaubert,2010 Offers a new translation of Flaubert's classic tale in which the title character turns to spending and a series of affairs to combat the boredom of married life and heartbroken and crippled by debts takes drastic action that results in tragedy Step Into Nature Patrice

Vecchione,2015-03-31 The natural world has inspired artists seekers and thinkers for millennia but in recent times as the pace of life has sped up its demands have moved us in doors Yet nature's capacity to lead us to important truths to invigorate and restore our imagination and equilibrium is infinite Step Into Nature is a guide to make nature personal again to stimulate awareness and increase our understanding of the environment while inspiring readers to develop and strengthen their imaginations But being in nature doesn't mean flying off to remote faraway places Nature is as close as opening your front door the sky above the miniature gardens that insist their way up between the sidewalk cracks the river just down the road Patrice Vecchione shows readers how nature can support and enhance their own creative output invigorate their curiosity and restore their sense of connection to the earth Plus included in each chapter is The Cabinet of Curiosities exercises and suggestions for practical and unexpected ways that readers can stimulate their imaginations deepen their relationships with nature and experience the harmony between creativity and the natural world The Lab Matthew Clark Davison,Alice

LaPlante,2025-07-22 Great writing doesn't begin with form it begins with obsession Two novelists offer an inspiring guide to transforming that obsession using whatever genre fits best Writers don't need formulas they need encouragement to take risks The Lab offers a bold hands on approach urging writers to embrace uncertainty experiment with form and investigate what haunts them The Lab features ten chapters and ninety exercises challenging writers to play with fiction memoir and poetry or push toward hybrid or entirely new forms This is a book for those ready to dig deep and write fearlessly

Lectures on American literature Justin Quinn,2011-10-01 The first edition of this book published in 2002 aimed to complete the study material for our students of American literature The third edition strives to emphasize this aspect while expanding and deepening the general overview as well as including other important movements and authors The exposition of the 20th century underwent major changes the scholars added new texts while supplementing the older ones to comply with the development of critical and academic approaches The book is written to the point and in comprehensible language corresponding with the ambition to present and explain the development of one of the most interesting world literatures to university students Relevance and Narrative Research Matei Chihaiia,Katharina Rennhak,2019-03-28 Relevance is one of the most widely used buzz words in academic and other socio political discourses and institutions today which constantly ask us to be relevant To date there is no profound scholarly conceptualization of the term however which is widely accepted in the humanities Relevance and Narrative Research closes this gap by initiating a discussion which turns the vaguely defined evaluative tool relevance into an object of study The contributors to this volume do so by firmly situating questions of relevance in the context of narrative theory Briefly put they ask either What can relevance do for narrative research or What can narrative research do for better understanding relevance or both The basic assumption is that relevance is a relational term Further assuming that most if not all relations which human beings encounter within their cultures are narratively constructed the contributors to this volume suggest that reflections on narrative and narrative research are fundamental to any endeavor to conceptualize notions of relevance

Sex, or the Unbearable Lauren Berlant, Lee Edelman, 2013-11-18 In Sex or the Unbearable two of our leading theorists of sexuality politics and culture engage in intense and animated dialogue about living with and imagining alternatives to what's overwhelming in sex friendship social inequality and one's relation to oneself

The Aesthetic Illusion in Literature and the Arts Tomáš Koblížek, 2017-09-21 The notion of aesthetic illusion relates to a number of art forms and media Defined as a pleasurable mental state that emerges during the reception of texts and artefacts it amounts to the reader's or viewer's sense of having entered the represented world while at the same time keeping a distance from it Aesthetic Illusion in Literature and the Arts is an in depth study of the main questions surrounding this experience of art as reality Beginning with an introduction providing historical background to modern discussions of illusion it deals with a wide range of theoretical issues The collection explores the nature and function of the aesthetic illusion as well as the role of affect and emotion the implications of aesthetic illusion for the theory of fiction the variable forms of aesthetic illusion and its relationship to other components of aesthetic response Aesthetic Illusion in Literature and the Arts brings together a team of scholars from philosophy literature and art and presents an interdisciplinary examination of a concept lying at the heart of contemporary aesthetics

Reading Style Jenny Davidson, 2014-06-24 A professor critic and insatiable reader Jenny Davidson investigates the passions that drive us to fall in love with certain sentences over others and the larger implications of our relationship with writing style At once playful and serious immersive and analytic her book shows how style elicits particular kinds of moral judgments and subjective preferences that turn reading into a highly personal and political act Melding her experiences as reader and critic Davidson opens new vistas onto works by Jane Austen Henry James Marcel Proust and Thomas Pynchon adds richer dimension to critiques of W G Sebald Alan Hollinghurst Thomas Bernhard and Karl Ove Knausgaard and allows for a sophisticated appreciation of popular fictions by Stephen King Neil Gaiman Lionel Shriver George Pelecanos and Helen DeWitt She privileges diction syntax point of view and structure over plot and character identifying the intimate mechanics that draw us in to literature's sensual frameworks and move us to feel identify and relate Davidson concludes with a reading list of her favorite titles so others can share in her literary adventures and get to know better the imprint of her own reading style

Swann in Love Marcel Proust, 2017 Set against the backdrop of Paris at the end of the nineteenth century presents a portrait of a stormy love affair between the courtesan Odette de Cr cy and upper class socialite Charles Swann that gives way to profound meditations on love and jealousy
