The Columbian Covenant Race And The Writing Of American History:

The Columbian Covenant: Race and the Writing of American History James Carson, 2014-12-18 This provocative analysis of American historiography argues that when scholars use modern racial language to articulate past histories of race and society they collapse different historical signs of skin color into a transhistorical and essentialist notion of race that implicates their work in the very racial categories they seek to transcend

The Columbian Covenant: Race and the Writing of American History James Carson, 2015-11-07 This provocative analysis of American historiography argues that when scholars use modern racial language to articulate past histories of race and society they collapse different historical signs of skin color into a transhistorical and essentialist notion of race that implicates their work in the very racial categories they seek to transcend

Contingent Faculty Publishing in Community: Case Studies for Successful Collaborations L. Guglielmo, L. Gaillet, 2014-12-23 Contributors argue that the key to innovative teaching and scholarship lies in institutional support for the contingent labor force and they encourage contingent faculty to organize self mentoring groups create venues for learning disseminating their experiences and findings and connect scholarship to service and teaching in novel ways

Economic Inequality and Policy Control in the United States M. Stelzner, 2015-01-23 The income share of the top one percent of the population in the United States has increased from a little over nine percent of national income in the 1970s to 22.46 percent in 2012 a 144 percent increase What is driving this astronomic growth in incomes for some Is it possibly the result of non meritorious forces If so how has this incredibly unequal development coexisted and indeed worsened in a political system based on equality In Economic Inequality and Policy Control in the United States Stelzner tackles each of these questions and in order to further develop understanding Stelzner looks to the past and analyzes our experience with income inequality and the orientation of laws and institutions from the Gilded Age through the New and Fair Deal He concludes that we have the tools to tackle inequality at present the same policies we used during the New and Fair Deal However in order to make change durable we have to eliminate the undemocratic elements of our political system

Public Choice Economics and the Salem Witchcraft Hysteria Franklin G. Mixon, Jr., 2015-01-12 Public Choice Economics and the Salem Witchcraft Hysteria provides an economics perspective on the witchcraft episode and adds to the growing body of work analyzing prominent historical events using the tools of economics

Creativity and Humour in Occupy Movements A. Yalcintas, 2015-02-03 This volume offers scholarly perspectives on the creative and humorous nature of the protests at Gezi Park in Turkey 2013 The contributors argue that these protests inspired musicians film makers social scientists and other creative individuals out of a concern for the aesthetics of the protests rather than seizure of political power

Economic Equality and Direct Democracy in Ancient Athens Larry Patriquin, 2015-12-05 This book argues that ancient democracy did not stop at the door of economic democracy and that ancient Athens has much to tell us about the relationship between political equality and economic equality Athenian democracy rested on a foundation of general economic equality which enabled citizens to challenge their exclusion from politics

Social Urbanism and the Politics of Violence K. Maclean, 2015-01-23 Medellín Colombia used to be the most violent city on earth but in recent years allegedly thanks to its social urbanism approach to regeneration it has experienced a sharp decline in violence The author explores the politics behind this decline and the complex transformations in terms of urban development policies in Medellín

History and Identity Stefan Berger, 2022-01-20 This introduction to contemporary historical theory and practice shows how issues of identity have shaped how we write history Stefan Berger charts how a new self reflexivity about what is involved in the process of writing history entered the historical profession and the part that historians have played in debates about the past and its meaningfulness for the present He introduces key trends in the theory of history such as postmodernism poststructuralism constructivism narrativism and the linguistic turn and reveals in turn the ways in which they have transformed how historians have written history over the last four decades The book ranges widely from more traditional forms of history writing such as political social economic labour and cultural history to the emergence of more recent fields including gender history historical anthropology the history of memory visual history the history of material culture and comparative transnational and global history

Between Dispersion and Belonging Amitava Chowdhury, Donald Harman Akenson, 2016-08-01 Revisiting diaspora theory with illuminating global case studies The Yamasee Indians Denise I. Bossy, 2022-04 Archaeologists of South Carolina and Florida and historians of the Native South Spanish Florida and British Carolina address elusive questions about Yamasee identity political and social networks and the fate of the Yamasees after the Yamasee War

Women and the Historical Enterprise in America: Gender, Race and the Politics of Memory Julie Des Jardins, 2004-07-21 In Women and the Historical Enterprise in America Julie Des Jardins explores American women's participation in the practice of history from the late nineteenth century through the end of World War II a period in which history became professionalized as an increasingly masculine field of scientific inquiry Des Jardins shows how women nevertheless transformed the profession during these years in their roles as writers preservationists educators archivists government workers and social activists Des Jardins explores the work of a wide variety of women historians both professional and amateur popular and scholarly conservative and radical white and nonwhite Although their ability to earn professional credentials and gain research access to official documents was limited by their gender and often by their race these historians addressed important new questions and represented social groups traditionally omitted from the historical record such as workers African Americans Native Americans and religious minorities Assessing the historical contributions of Mary Beard Zora Neale Hurston Angie Debo Mari Sandoz Lucy Salmon Mary McLeod Bethune Dorothy Porter Nellie Neilson and many others Des Jardins argues that women working within the broadest confines of the historical enterprise collectively brought the new perspectives of social and cultural history to the study of a multifaceted American past In the process they not only developed the field of women's history but also influenced the creation of our national memory in the twentieth century     The Midnight Kingdom Jared Yates Sexton,2023-01-17 From the author of American Rule and the host of The Muckrake Podcast an ambitious account of how white supremacist lies religious mythologies and poisonous conspiracy theories built the modern world and threaten to plunge us into an authoritarian nightmare To fully understand these strange and dangerous times Jared Yates Sexton takes a hard look at our nation s history namely the abuses committed by those in power and the comforting stories that shaped the way the West has viewed itself up to the present As reactionaries and authoritarians cling to myths about Western civilization The Midnight Kingdom exposes how political power religious indoctrination and economic dominance have been repeatedly weaponized to oppress and exploit sounding an alarm for what lies ahead as the current order frays Beginning with the Roman Empire and racing through centuries of colonization war genocide and the recurring clashes of progress and regression Sexton finds our modern world at a crossroads In an echo of past crises we have arrived at a time of historic inequality and a fading trust in our institutions Meanwhile authoritarianism is gaining momentum and the progress of the twentieth century is being rolled back at dizzying speed This catastrophic moment holds terrible potential for a return to a totalitarian past or potentially a better realer more human future The difference depends on a true reckoning with our history and the larger forces at play or hiding behind this disastrous fantasy of Western superiority Bracing and compulsively readable The Midnight Kingdom takes a critical look at the forces that have shaped human civilization for centuries and invites us to seek a radically different future     The Role of Creative

Ignorance: Portraits of Path Finders and Path Creators P. Formica,2014-12-21 Traditionally company experts and outside collaborators innovate by developing the knowledge map Success or failure of incremental innovation hinges on this path The Role of Creative Ignorance suggests the knowledge map should be abandoned and replaced with a new methodology that of creative ignorance With over 30 years of experience in international economics and entrepreneurship Piero Formica explores the concept of creative ignorance in combination with path creation and its disruptive effect on entrepreneurship Using narrative examples of innovators and companies worldwide he introduces the characteristics of successful path creators that overstep the boundaries set by knowledge maps to open up new unprecedented routes and connect them each other In doing so path creators reveal latent unexpressed needs of consumers and drive innovation forward

The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America Ronald H. Baylor,2004-07-14 All historians would agree that America is a nation of nations But what does that mean in terms of the issues that have moved and shaped us as a people Contemporary concerns such as bilingualism incorporation assimilation dual identity ethnic politics quotas and affirmative action residential segregation and the volume of immigration resonate with a past that has confronted variations of these modern issues The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America written and compiled by a highly respected team of American historians under the editorship of Ronald Baylor illuminates the myriad ways in which immigration racial and ethnic histories have shaped the contours of contemporary American society This invaluable resource
