The Great War shakes the world of a spirited young woman and the brave British pilot she loves taking her from London to her family's magnificent country estate and sending him into the war-torn skies over France Penny Ramsey has always considered Highland Hall her home but when Britain becomes involved in World War One she travels to London to assist her sister Kate with the eight orphan children she and her husband Jon have taken into their home Doing her part for the war effort takes priority over Penny's dreams of romance until she meets Alex Goodwin a Royal Naval Air Service pilot in training Alex is determined to prove his worth and do his part to defend his country Knowing he is heading off for the dangerous assignment of chasing Zeppelins across the front line in France he feels it's unwise to form any romantic attachments But he can't help admiring the pretty warmhearted Penny and wondering what it would be like to find her waiting when he returns home from the war As Penny writes to Alex their friendship blossoms and she becomes his tie to home and normalcy as he faces the hardships war But being an RNAS pilot means confronting the enemy and the fallout from those experiences push Alex beyond Penny's reach Can God mend the brokenness left by the losses of war Will faith and forgiveness bring them together again

Shine Like the Dawn Carrie Turansky, 2017-02-21

In a quiet corner of northern Edwardian England Margaret Lounsbury diligently works in her grandmother's millinery shop making hats and caring for her young sister Several years earlier a terrible event shattered their idyllic family life and their future prospects Maggie is resilient and will do what she must to protect her sister Violet Still the loss of her parents weighs heavily on her heart as she begins to wonder if what happened that day on the lake might not have been an accident When wealthy inventor and industrialist William Harcourt dies his son and Maggie's estranged childhood friend Nathaniel returns from his time in the Royal Navy and inherits his father's vast estate Morningside Manor He also assumes partial control of his father's engineering company and the duty of repaying an old debt to the Lounsbury family But years of separation between Nate and Maggie have taken a toll and Maggie struggles to trust her old friend Can Maggie let go of the resentment that keeps her from forgiving Nate and reconciling with God Will the search for the truth about her parents' death draw the two friends closer or leave them both with broken hearts

No Ocean Too Wide Carrie Turansky, 2019-06-25

Between the years of 1869 to 1939 more than 100 000 poor British children were sent across the ocean to Canada with the promise of a better life Those who took them in to work as farm laborers or household servants were told they were orphans but was that the truth After the tragic loss of their father the McAlister family is living at the edge of the poorhouse in London in 1908 leaving their mother to scrape by for her three younger children while oldest daughter Laura works on a large estate more than an hour away When Edna McAlister falls gravely ill and is hospitalized twins Katie and Garth and eight year old Grace are forced into an orphans home before Laura is notified about her family s unfortunate turn of events in London With hundreds of British children sent on ships to Canada whether truly orphans or not Laura knows she must act quickly But finding her siblings and taking care of her family may cost her everything Andrew Fraser a wealthy young British lawyer and heir to the estate where Laura is in service discovers that this common practice of finding new homes for penniless children might not be all that it seems Together Laura and Andrew form an unlikely partnership Will they arrive in time Will their friendship blossom into something more Inspired by true events this moving novel follows Laura as she seeks to reunite her family and her siblings who in their darkest hours must cling to the words from Isaiah Fear thou not for I am with thee be not dismayed for I am thy God The governess of Highland Hall Carrie Turansky,2014 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R.
