titles authors and composers politicians and subjects and offices Before the Rhetorical Presidency Martin J. Medhurst, 2008-11-05 Since its identification in 1981 the rhetorical presidency has drawn both defenders and critics Chief among those critical of the practice is political theorist Jeffrey K Tulis whose 1987 book The Rhetorical Presidency helped popularize the construct and set forth a sustained analysis of the baleful effects that have allegedly accompanied the shift from a constitutional presidency to a rhetorical one Tulis locates this shift in the presidencies of Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson arguing that the rhetorical presidency is a twentieth century phenomenon Yet not all scholars agree with this assessment Before the Rhetorical Presidency is an attempt to investigate how U S presidents in the nineteenth century communicated with their publics both congressional and popular In part 1 Martin J Medhurst Mel Laracey Jeffrey K Tulis and Stephen E Lucas set forth differing perspectives on how the rhetorical presidency ought to be understood and evaluated In part 2 eleven scholars of nineteenth century presidential rhetoric investigate the presidencies of Martin Van Buren John Tyler James K Polk Franklin Pierce James Buchanan Andrew Johnson Ulysses S Grant Rutherford B Hayes Benjamin Harrison Grover Cleveland and William McKinley As the first volume ever to focus on nineteenth century presidents from a rhetorical perspective Before the Rhetorical Presidency examines administrations policies and events that have never before been subjected to rhetorical analysis The sometimes startling outcomes of these investigations reveal the need for continuing debate over the nature practices and effects of the rhetorical presidency In a brief afterword Medhurst raises eight challenges to the original formulation of the rhetorical presidency and in so doing sets forth an agenda for future studies

SAT Writing Study Guide , American Rhetoric Thomas W. Benson, 1989 Nine fresh views of the interconnections of historical critical and theoretical scholarship in the field of American rhetoric Stephen T Olsen addresses the question of how to determine the disputed authorship of Patrick Henry's Liberty or Death speech of March 23 1775 Stephen E Lucas analyzes the Declaration of Independence as a rhetorical action designed for its own time and drawing on a long tradition of English rhetoric Carroll C Arnold examines the communicative qualities of constitutional discourse as revealed in a series of constitutional debates in Pennsylvania between 1776 and 1790 James R Andrews traces the early days of political pamphleteering in the new American nation Martin J Medhurst discusses the generic and political exigencies that shaped the official prayer at Lyndon B Johnson's inauguration In Rhetoric as a Way of Being Benson acknowledges the importance of everyday and transient rhetoric as an enactment of being and becoming Gerard A Hauser traces the Carter Administration's attempt to manage public opinion during the Iranian hostage crisis Richard B Gregg ends the book by looking for conceptual metaphorical patterns that may be emerging in political rhetoric in the 1980s The Constitution of the United States William Backus Guitteau, Hanson Hart Webster, 1926 Democracy's Greatest Documents: the Declaration of Independence; the Constitution of the United States Robert E. May, Louisiana. Department of Education, 1950 Our Christian Founding Fathers William Beckman, 2015-06-26 The American public has been told what recent historians wanted them to believe the United States is not a Christian nation This is true in only one respect You dont have to be a Christian following a specific denomination to be an American citizen However the ideological foundation this country is based on Christian principles developed by Christian Founding Fathers Modern historians have distorted these facts To correct these distortions the biographies of the Founding Fathers their actual statements and Christian beliefs are presented in this work The catalyst for the birth of our nation was the moment when Benjamin Franklin incorrectly considered a Deist by many suggested that the quarrelsome Continental Convention recognize how the Creator had listened to and answered their prayers in the past He suggested daily prayer be instituted asking henceforth prayers imploring the assistance of heaven and its blessings on our deliberations be held in this assembly every morning The quarreling continued but the emphasis became how to successfully unite the newly independent colonies The colonies united under Christian principles however over the years those principles and their original intent have been diluted Recognizing the condition of the world today isnt it a good time to renew those principles
