The Columbia Guide To Modern Chinese History:

The Columbia Guide to Modern Chinese History R. Keith Schoppa, 2000-08-05 China the world's oldest and most populous state remains an enigma to most people in the West even at a time when that country is playing an increasingly prominent role on the international stage At the heart of modern Chinese history have been the efforts of the Chinese people to transform their polity into a modern nation state the Confucian orthodoxy into an ideology that can help direct that process and an agrarian economy into an industrial one These efforts are ongoing and of great importance This book is both an introduction to the major features of modern Chinese history and a resource for researchers interested in virtually any topic relating to the Chinese experience of the last 220 years This valuable reference contains a historical narrative providing a comprehensive overview of five core aspects of Chinese history domestic politics society the economy the world of culture and thought and relations with the outside world a compendium of 250 short descriptive articles on key figures events and terms a resource guide containing approximately 500 annotated entries for the most authoritative sources for further research in English as well as descriptions of important films depicting modern China and a guide to electronic resources and appendices including a chronology excerpts from key primary source documents and a wealth of tables and graphs on demographic social and economic trends

Drugs for the mind Sofie Sun, 2015-08-14 In the eyes of the Chinese authorities books are too often Drugs for the Mind Sofie Sun 1986 chose this remarkable description as the title of her investigation into censorship and literature in the People's Republic of China She interviewed representatives of three groups of authors who each have their own view about censorship writers with no official status living and working in the People's Republic of China writers in exile and those who are members of the Chinese Writers Association By telling the stories about these writers she sketches a portrayal of censorship and self censorship in the People's Republic of China Sofie Sun was born in the People's Republic of China and came to the Netherlands in 2007 where she has lived ever since She holds a BA and an MA in Dutch literature from Leiden University She has translated a range of Dutch titles into Chinese She will soon complete and defend her doctoral dissertation Dutch literature in Chinese translation 1961-2010 A publication of the Eva Tas Foundation The Eva Tas Foundation encourages publication and promotion of texts that are no matter where and no matter how subject to censorship
