Dario Argento L. Andrew Cooper, 2012-11-30 Commanding a cult following among horror fans Italian film director Dario Argento is best known for his work in two closely related genres the crime thriller and supernatural horror as well as his influence on modern horror and slasher movies In his four decades of filmmaking Argento has displayed a commitment to innovation from his directorial debut with 1970 s suspense thriller The Bird with the Crystal Plumage to 2009 s Giallo His films like the lurid yellow covered murder mystery novels they are inspired by follow the suspense tradition of hard boiled American detective fiction while incorporating baroque scenes of violence and excess While considerations of Argento s films often describe them as irrational nightmares L Andrew Cooper uses controversies and theories about the films reflections on sadism gender sexuality psychoanalysis aestheticism and genre to declare the anti rational logic of Argento s oeuvre Approaching the films as rhetorical statements made through extremes of sound and vision Cooper places Argento in a tradition of aestheticized horror that includes De Sade De Quincey Poe and Hitchcock Analyzing individual images and sequences as well as larger narrative structures he reveals how the director s stylistic excesses often condemned for glorifying misogyny and other forms of violence offer productive resistance to the cinema s visual narrative and political norms
