McCarthyism and The Crucible

Concept 1
McCarthyism

Concept 2
The Crucible

How were these concepts alike?

People were jailed and accused without proper evidence.

People who were accused were expected to give the names of others or face further punishment.

People in both societies became very paranoid and hysterical that they could be accused.

People accused often denied the charges and took on unfair consequences for not giving into the hysteria.

How are these concepts different in regards to?

In the 1940s and 1950s Americans feared the encroachment or the spread of Communism. Americans were fearful of the Communist threat.

What they feared

Salem was a religious community and those who lived there feared evil. The people in the community were fearful that there were witches living among them.

Fear of "card carrying" Communist part members in the United States.

Causes of Hysteria

Fears of the existence of witches doing harm to community members in Salem.

The media were not willing to stand up to Senator McCarthy for fear of being accused of being a Communist.

Contributing Causes

Townpeople are not willing to stand up to the court for fear of being accused of being a witch.

Millions were forced to take loyalty oaths, activism and labor unions go into decline, people become afraid to speak out on public issue, and anti-communism continues.

Effects

Calls for more due process in protecting individuals facing false accusations. The presumption that one is innocent until proven guilty (not the other way around).

In 1947, at the start of the Cold War, President Truman tried to assure Americans who were worried about Communists in government that he was not worried about the Communist Party taking over the Government of the United States, but I am against a person whose loyalty is not to the Government of the United States holding a Government job. They are entirely different things. I am not worried about this country ever going Communist. We have too much sense for that. Nonetheless, shortly after World War II, Congress House Committee on Un-American Activities (HUAC) began investigating Americans across the country for suspected ties to Communism. The most famous victims of these witch hunts were Hollywood actors such as Charlie Chaplin, whose Un-American activity was being neutral at the beginning of World War II, but at the beginning of the Cold War, many Americans had the Red Scare. Among the people called before HUAC, perhaps none are as controversial as Alger Hiss. Hiss had graduated from Harvard Law, after which he worked as a clerk for Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, worked in the Roosevelt administration for the Agricultural Adjustment Association, and was Head of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. That background didn't exactly sound like one held by a Soviet spy, let alone a Communist, but Elizabeth Bentley, a former Communist, notified the Committee about a suspected spy ring and named several names, including Hiss. More notably, Hiss was also accused of being a Communist and

Soviet spy by an admitted Communist Whittaker Chambers HUAC was well in decline by the time the 60s dawned a fact so obvious that HUAC actually tried to restore its reputation by changing its name to the Internal Security Committee in 1969 Nevertheless a few years later the committee's authority was rolled into the House Judiciary Committee's bringing to an end one of Congress most controversial chapters Another factor was the disrepute the Red Scare fell into because of the antics of Wisconsin Senator Joseph McCarthy McCarthy had made waves in 1950 by telling the Republican Women's Club in Wheeling West Virginia that he had a list of dozens of known Communists working in the State Department The political theater helped Senator McCarthy become the most prominent anti Communist crusader in the government and the Rosenberg case only further emboldened him McCarthy continued to claim he held evidence suggesting Communist infiltration throughout the government but anytime he was pressed to produce his evidence McCarthy would not name names Instead he'd accuse those who questioned his evidence of being Communists themselves McCarthy's rise made it possible for him to continue lobbying accusations against people but the Senator finally met his match when he went after the Army As chairman of the Senate Committee on Government Operations McCarthy summoned decorated World War II veterans and challenged their loyalty and when he openly suggested World War II hero Brigadier General Ralph W Zwicker was a Communist during one hearing the military had enough In April 1954 the committee hearings were widely televised and Americans watched Army members demand that McCarthy name names and provide evidence The Army's legal representative Joseph Nye Welch repeatedly demanded that McCarthy produce the list of alleged Communists in the U S Army and railed at the Senator You've done enough Have you no sense of decency sir At long last have you left no sense of decency McCarthy was publicly and permanently repudiated He would be censured by Congress and he would die just a few years later A Study Guide for Arthur Miller's The Crucible Cengage Learning Gale,2015
