Act Questions

You must complete a response (analytical paragraph at the minimum) to at least one question from each Act.

Act 1

What dramatic techniques are used to build tension in this Act, and how does this contribute to the theme of paranoia?

Discuss the significance of the opening scene. How important is it in establishing the social, cultural and historical setting?

How does Miller establish the power relationships in the play?

What techniques are used to construct the character of Abigail?

- The SD's with Abigail and John worth mentioning (pg 28)
 - o Springs into his path
 - o Destroys his smile
 - o She is boxing him in
 - o Abigail's desire is 'concentrated' she is motivated there is singularity
 - o Taunting, for a young girl she knows how to mess with people
 - o Dissembling
 - o "winningly" she sees it as a game she can win. Its almost like she is hunting someone down. The descriptors Miller uses is showing of the ideas which he is trying to contribute
- Descriptor used 3 times for Abigail used are: anger. She goes from weeping to being angry, then she is coquettish, then she is a vixen. She is trying to manipulate him this whole situation is extremely complex. She is trying to be an adult, but it is shown that she is a child because of her erratic nature in emotion. Also, this is almost a game for her, she tries to drag him every which way. This is happening in a private space. As an audience, you feel like the door could open any minute, this also hangs in the space and creates tension. This gains in volume. There are psalms, crying, voices in anger, and then Betty starts whining and crying, the noise on stage is getting too much to bear and its like a pressure cooker. It is a confined space with lots of noise. It is also a physical exchange, John grabs and shakes Abigail, there are physical things occurring.
- O Descriptors that capture that atmosphere. Collapses, smashes, roughly, menacingly, horrified, darts off the bed, fright. Abigail's presence. Many dimensions to her personality. Seem good Christian girl "goes edgy mode real quick" (Bowman, 2019)
- Abigail and John stage direction – springs into his path, destroys his smile, – boxing him in – impulsive behaviour – concentrated desire – main motivation – taunting – she knows how to mess with him – she has an endless capacity for dissembling – she sees it as a game and competition – winning – as if it's a sport, like you are hunting someone down – descriptors Miller uses helps with this construction
- Descriptor used three times for Abigail – "anger" and "suddenly"
- Look specifically at the descriptors of children and women when they enter e.g. when Abigail enters, she is described as 'a striking girl of seventeen with an endless capacity for dissembling'
- The physical stage directions show power dynamic e.g. [Abigail lowers eyes] → also relates to the unimportance of children in Salem
