The Curious Magpie:

The Curious Magpie Hendon Chubb, 2014-12-01 A Collection of Facts Opinions and Utopias In the Form of an Eccentric and Philosophical Encyclopedia The facts in this book are hopefully correct The opinions are the author's The utopias are also the author's inventions The word Utopia comes from the title of the 1516 fantasy by Sir Thomas More 1478-1535 of an imaginary island that enjoyed perfection in politics law and society The word is derived from classical Greek words meaning nowhere It is usually used to describe some ideal society or the like But there are many nowheres Lilliput and Brobdingnag in Gulliver's Travels are utopias although scarcely prime tourist destinations In this work I describe a number of different nowheres that are interesting but perhaps not always ideal Magpie Hall Rachael King, 2010-05-01 A gripping and
