The Dark Room World War Fiction

Rachel Seiffert

The Dark Room World War Fiction:

The Dark Room Rachel Seiffert, 2007-12-18 A debut novel that retells the history of twentieth century Germany through the experiences of three ordinary Germans Helmut A boy born with a physical deformity finds work as a photographer's assistant during the 1930s and captures on film the changing temper of Berlin the city he loves But his acute photographic eye never provides him with the power to understand the significance of what he sees through his camera Lore In the weeks following Germany's surrender a teenage girl whose parents are both in Allied captivity takes her younger siblings on a terrifying illegal journey through the four zones of occupation in search of her grandmother Micha Many years after the war a young man trying to discover why the Russians imprisoned his grandfather for nine years after the war meets resistance at every turn the only person who agrees reluctantly to help him is compromised by his own past The Dark Room evokes the experiences of the individual with astonishing emotional depth and psychological authenticity With dazzling originality and to profound effect Rachel Seiffert has re-envisioned and illuminated signal moments of the twentieth century in all their drama and complexity

The Dark Room Rachel Seiffert, 2010-04-27 The Dark Room tells the stories of three ordinary Germans Helmut a young photographer in Berlin in the 1930s who uses his craft to express his patriotic fervour Lore a twelve year old girl who in 1945 guides her young siblings across a devastated Germany after her Nazi parents are seized by the Allies and fifty years later Micha a young teacher obsessed with what his loving grandfather did in the war struggling to deal with the past of his family and his country

The Ben Peters World War II Thrillers: Books 1-3 Box Set Vic Robbie, 2019-07-08 COURAGE FEAR LOVE LOSS and INTRIGUE a riveting mix of action and emotion Three stunning World War II thrillers in one In Pursuit of Platinum As the Germans invade Paris in 1940 American Ben Peters smuggles a fortune in platinum out of the city in the legendary Bullion Bentley But the Bentley is carrying an even more valuable human cargo a mysterious Frenchwoman escaping with her young son and a secret that could change the course of the Second World War Hitler wants Alena silenced her son brought back to Berlin and the Banque de France's platinum As they flee they experience the tragic realities of war and the raw emotions of two heroes living on the edge of fear And not everything is as it seems Paradise Gold America faces its biggest threat as Nazi U-boats dominate the Atlantic from their base in the Caribbean And the US government enlist the help of the Mafia to snatch the biggest prize of World War II from the Germans Caught between ruthless Nazis and Mafia assassins only American agent Ben Peters knows the Nazis' terrifying plans for America First he has to deal with two beautiful and dangerous women who will do anything to achieve their goals The Girl with the Silver Stiletto A stiletto is the ultimate murder weapon but will Natalie use it to kill a child to save her own life At the end of World War II she is given an ultimatum Execute the boy or die Her only alternative is to hand him over to the Nazis Why do the Nazis want the boy and who is he As the action races across three continents from London to New York to California to Buenos Aires only American agent Ben Peters stands alone against evil and his former lover WHAT READERS ARE SAYING about the three books in the Ben Peters series Brilliant Exciting Suspenseful Hard to put down Plenty of action romance and international intrigue The opening pages grab and don't let go A great WWII novel Absolutely riveting Read it end to end and way into the night Look forward to more What a story I couldn't put it down So many twists and turns and so much action and adventure If you like reading Alan Furst and Phillip Kerr you will like this book One of the best WWII fiction I have read Thrilling chilling nail biting fast paced historical fiction Keeps you absorbed in the novel in juxtaposition of world events Writing similar to Ken Follett's in that the characters are alive with sexual tension Not able to read fast enough I just had to know how it was going to turn out for all of them OMG What can I say this was a GREAT story Wow he did a good job there was danger love mystery and fictional history A story I didn't want to end Put me in mind of Casablanca for the time period the tension and the characters There was not one single page that did not contain excellent writing tension and emotion Being on the train for two to three hours every day I could not wait for the next train to arrive so I could carry on reading With my hand on my heart this is the best World War Two espionage tale I've read

Death Steppe: A World War II Novel Judy Bruce, 2015 Merriam Press Historical Fiction Series This World War II story set in western Soviet Union during Germany's retreat follows the lives of a Russian war widow a dissident Christian and black marketeer as she serves as a medic on the front lines and a disillusioned German lieutenant a former professor and concentration camp officer as he fights in a losing effort After our heroine is forced into service as a navigator in a women's air force regiment flying plywood and canvas biplanes on harrowing night missions she encounters the injured yet violent German when her plane crashes Together they embark on a turbulent journey first as enemies later as lovers and disheartened deserters

World War II in Contemporary German and Dutch Fiction Jan Lensen, 2021-03-04 World War II in Contemporary German and Dutch Fiction The Generation of Meta Memory offers a comparative study of the construction of World War II memory in contemporary German Flemish and Dutch literature More specifically it investigates in what ways the large temporal distance to the historical events has impacted how literary writers from these three literatures have negotiated its meaning and form during the last decades To that end this book offers analyses of nine novels that demonstrate a pronounced reflexivity on the conditions of contemporary remembering Rather than a dig for historical truth or a struggle with historical trauma these novels reflect on the transmission the narrative shapes the formation processes and the functions of World War II memory today while asserting a self-conscious and often irreverent approach toward established mnemonic routines practices and rules As the analyses show this approach is equally articulated through the novels poetics which are marked by a large formal diversity and a playfulness that highlights mnemonic agency a posttraumatic positioning and the ascendancy of the literary over the historiographical Based on these findings this book proposes the emergence of a new paradigm within the postwar cultural assessment of World War II the generation of meta memory

Three Novels of World War II Jeff Shaara, 2011-12-05 Jeff Shaara has written vivid perceptive portraits of America's wars that have thrilled and mesmerized readers across generations Collected for the first time in this eBook volume are Jeff Shaara's epic New York Times bestselling novels of World War II The Rising Tide The Steel Wave and No Less Than Victory As the United States wades into the shifting tides of war Shaara details every move the tank battles along the Mediterranean coast the audacious invasion at Omaha Beach the deadly final spasms of the Third Reich He brings to life such figures as Eisenhower and Patton as well as the courageous men on the front lines of battle On full display throughout is the inimitable style and striking narrative range that have made Jeff Shaara such an esteemed and essential chronicler of the American age Contains an excerpt from Jeff Shaara's acclaimed new novel of World War II in the Pacific The Final Storm which Booklist called extraordinarily evocative

In the Dark Room Rosanna Maule, Julie Beaulieu, 2009 This book examines Duras's contribution to contemporary cinema The dark room in the collection's title refers to one of Duras's metaphors for the writing process la chambre noire as the solitary space of literary creation the place where she struggles to project her internal shadow onto the blank page The dark room is also a metaphor for the film theater and by extension for the filmic experience Duras rejected conventional forms of cinematic address that encourage the spectator to develop a positive identification with the film's diegesis and narrative Her films create unusual rapports between image and sound diegetic and extra diegetic elements and textual and intertextual dimensions of cinematic representation In doing so they allow the film spectator to establish new connections with the screen This collection focuses on the aesthetic conceptual and political challenges involved in Duras's innovative approach to cinematic representation from an interdisciplinary perspective including film and literary theory psychoanalytic analysis music theory gender studies and post colonial criticism The book opens with a theoretical introduction to Duras's cinematic practice and its peculiar position in contemporary cinema and contemporary film theory and is divided into five parts each one devoted to a specific aspect of Duras's films the interaction between literature and cinema Part One the reconfiguration of the cinematic gaze Part Two and of the image sound relation Part Three the representation of history and memory Part Four and of cultural identity Part Five

The Generation of Postmemory Marianne Hirsch,2012 Can we remember other people s memories This book argues that we can that memories of traumatic events live on to mark the lives of those who were not there to experience them In these revised critical readings of the literary and visual legacies of the Holocaust Hirsch builds on her influential concept of postmemory

Gay American Novels, 1870-1970 Drewey Wayne Gunn,2016-02-04 Examining the development of gay American fiction and providing an essential reading list this literary survey covers 257 works novels novellas a graphic story cycle and a narrative poem in which gay and bisexual male characters play a major role Iconic works such as James Baldwin s Giovanni s Room and Christopher Isherwood s A Single Man are included along with titles not given attention by earlier surveys such as Wallace Thurman s Infants of the Spring Dashiell Hammett s The Maltese Falcon Julian Green s Each in His Darkness Ursula Zilinsky s Middle Ground and David Plante s The Ghost of Henry James Chronological entries discuss each work s plot significance for gay identity and publication history along with a brief biography of the author

Luminaries of Investigative Fiction Mohan Gopinath,Edwin Castelino,2025-09-29 The book is unique insofar as it puts together for the first time a detailed comparative study of the prose styles of three great writers and their influence on spy and detective fiction today and then looks at future trends such narratives will take based on the current technological advances It analyzes the prose styles of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Ian Fleming and John le Carre David Cornwell By breaking down the prose styles in detail readers will get a good idea of how masters of the game tackle this difficult part of creative writing The styles of the three writers may differ but the end result is fiction which is both realistic and readable From the perspectives of a fog enclosed Baker Street to various international locations and from there to the intricacies of running a country s most secret office these are the stamping grounds of the book which the authors tread confidently This is a captivating book which is a must read for all fans of the spy and detective story genres

Performing Memories Gabriele Biotti,2021-04-26 What is memory today How can it be approached Why does the contemporary world seem to be more and more haunted by different types of memories still asking for elaboration Which artistic experiences have explored and defined memory in meaningful ways How do technologies and the media have changed it These are just some of the questions developed in this collection of essays analysing memory and memory shapes which explores the different ways in which past time and its elaboration have been and still are elaborated discussed written or filmed and contested but also shared By gathering together scholars from different fields of investigation this book explores the cultural social and artistic tensions in representing the past and the present in understanding our legacies and in approaching historical time and experience Through the analysis of different representations of memory and the investigation of literature anthropology myth and storytelling a space of theories and discourses about the symbolic and cultural spaces of memory representation is developed The Holocaust and the Postmodern Robert Eaglestone,2004-12-09 Robert Eaglestone argues that postmodernism especially understood in the light of the work of Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida is a response to the Holocaust This way of thinking offers new perspectives on Holocaust testimony literature historiography and post Holocaust philosophy While postmodernism is often derided for being either playful and superficial or obscure and elitist Eaglestone argues and demonstrates its commitment both to the past and to ethics Dealing with Holocaust testimony including the work of Primo Levi and Eli Wiesel with the memoirs of second generation survivors and with recent Holocaust literature including Anne Michael s Fugitive Pieces Jonathan Safran Foer s Everything is Illuminated and the false memoir of Benjamin Wilkomirski The Holocaust and the Postmodern proposes a new way of reading both Holocaust testimony and Holocaust fiction Through an exploration of Holocaust historiography the book offers a new approach to debates over truth and memory Eaglestone argues for the central importance of the Holocaust in understanding the work of Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida and goes on to explore what the Holocaust means for rationality ethics and for the idea of what it is to be human Weaving together theory and practice testimony literature history philosophy and Holocaust studies this interdisciplinary book is the first to explore in detail the significance of the Holocaust for postmodernism and the significance of postmodernism for understanding the Holocaust The Joy of Poetry and Short Stories Kenneth R. Taylor

Sr.,2016-08-12 Author Kenneth R Taylor Sr has faced many struggles both in his current life and in his previous existence lived on a faraway planet Now he shares reflections upon these battles in the form of poetry and short stories In his earthly life at the age of six he witnessed the horrific death of his father in a motorcycle accident He then contracted pharynx polio which left him unable to speak correctly Prior to coming to earth Taylor lived in the system of the star Kolob past the Andromeda Galaxy There he was a one star general in the midst of a civil war His loyalties were torn and his hesitation in choosing sides led to his banishment to Earth where only through dreams and visions is he able to understand his purpose What s more while living an earthly life he has been burdened with visions of female demons who tortured him and dragged him to the dungeons of hell introducing him to the unseen world of spiritual warfare He has turned to God for help struggling to do right and to find love and affection along the way In this collection of prose and verse one man reflects on his journey through life not just on this planet but also in a distant galaxy and in the realm of the spirit The Encyclopedia of

D'haen,2019-07-25 The recent return of world literature to the centre of literary studies has entailed an increased attention to non European literatures but in turn has also further marginalized Europe s smaller literatures Dutch and Flemish Literature as World Literature shows how Dutch language literature from its very beginnings in the Middle Ages to the present has not only always taken its cue from the major literary traditions of Europe and beyond but has also actively contributed to and influenced these traditions The contributors to this book focus on key works and authors providing a concise yet highly readable history of Dutch language literature and demonstrating how this literature is anchored in world literature Encyclopedia of Contemporary Writers and Their Works Geoff Hamilton,Brian Jones,2010 Provides a comprehensive overview of the best writers and works of the current English speaking literary world SHORT STORIES FROM MODERN INDIA Suresh Kohli,2013 Best General Book The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of World War II Marina MacKay,2009-01-22 The literature of World War II has emerged as an accomplished moving and challenging body of work produced by writers as different as Norman Mailer and Virginia Woolf Primo Levi and Ernest Hemingway Jean Paul Sartre and W H Auden This Companion provides a comprehensive overview of the international literatures of the war both those works that recorded or reflected experiences of the war as it happened and those that tried to make sense of it afterwards It surveys the writing produced in the major combatant nations Britain and the Commonwealth the USA Japan Germany France Italy and the USSR and explores its common themes With its chronology and guide to further reading it will be an invaluable source of information and inspiration for students and scholars of modern literature and war studies

Modernism, Nationalism, and the Novel Pericles Lewis,2000-04-24 In Modernism Nationalism and the Novel first published in 2000 Pericles Lewis shows how political debates over the sources and nature of national character prompted radical experiments in narrative form amongst modernist writers Though critics have accused the modern novel of shunning the external world Lewis suggests that far from abandoning nineteenth century realists concern with politics the modernists used this emphasis on individual consciousness to address the distinctively political ways in which the modern nation state shapes the psyche of its subjects Tracing this theme through Joyce Proust and Conrad amongst others Lewis claims that modern novelists gave life to a whole generation of narrators who forged new social realities in their own images Their literary techniques multiple narrators transcriptions of consciousness involuntary memory and arcane symbolism focused attention on the shaping of the individual by the nation and on the potential of the individual in time of crisis to redeem the nation
