Children's Rights and Obligations in Canon Law Mary McAleese, 2019-11-04 In the first study of its kind Mary McAleese subjects to comprehensive scrutiny the Roman Catholic Church s 1983 Code of Canon law as it applies to children The Catholic Church is the world s largest non governmental organisation involved in the provision of education and care services to children It has over three hundred million child members world wide the vast majority of whom became Church members when they were baptised as infants Canon law sets out their rights and obligations as members Children also have rights which are set out in the 1989 United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child to which the Holy See is State Party The impact of the Convention on Canon Law is examined in detail and the analysis charts a distinct and worrying sea change in the attitude of the Holy See to its obligations under the Convention since the clerical sex abuse scandals became a subject of discussion at the Committee on the Rights of the Child which monitors implementation of the Convention Mary McAleese wins Europe's richest theology prize for her study of canon law The former President of Ireland Mary McAleese has won one of the Catholic world's most prestigious prizes the Alfons Auer Ethics Award from Tübingen University in Germany for her doctoral thesis on Children's Rights and Obligations in Canon Law

Priestly Identity Thomas J. McGovern, 2010-04-01 It is generally accepted that since the end of Vatican II there has been a crisis in the Catholic priesthood This is reflected in two areas in particular defections from the priesthood and a serious decline in vocations primarily in the developed countries of the West John Paul II has addressed this situation many times during his pontificate especially in Pastores dabo vobis where he offers a clear theological vision and a program of formation to overcome the current crisis of priestly identity In his new book McGovern offers a deep analysis of the Pope's theology of priesthood drawing not only from Pastores dabo vobis but also from his Holy Thursday Letters and other important writings on this topic In this study the author deals with core aspects of priestly identity under three main headings theological spiritual and pastoral in the context of service to the lay faithful and the evangelization required of the Church in the new millennium
