Making Global Trade Governance Work for Development Carolyn Deere Birkbeck,2011-08-18 Discussion of the governance of global trade and the multilateral trading system is too often dominated by developed country scholars and opinion makers with inadequate attention given to developing country perspectives Making Global Trade Governance Work for Development gathers a diversity of developing country views on how to improve the governance of global trade and the WTO to better advance sustainable development and respond to the needs of developing countries With contributions by senior scholars commentators and practitioners the essays combine new empirically grounded research with practical insights about the trade policy making process They consider the specific governance issues of interest to developing countries and acknowledge the changing dynamics in the global economy and in trade decision making

World Trade Organizations Ramello Thornton,2019-09-08 The World Trade Organization WTO is an intergovernmental Organization that regulates international trade The WTO officially commenced on 1 January 1995 under the Marrakesh Agreement signed by 123 nations on 15 April 1994 replacing the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade GATT which commenced in 1948 It is the largest international economic Organization in the world The WTO deals with regulation of trade in goods services and intellectual property between participating countries by providing a framework for negotiating trade agreements and a dispute resolution process aimed at enforcing participants adherence to WTO agreements which are signed by representatives of member governments and ratified by their parliaments Most of the issues that the WTO focuses on derive from previous trade negotiations especially from the Uruguay Round 1986 1994 The present book is a result of deep research conducted on the topic of World Trade Organization It is in continuation to the earlier works by the author on the contemporary trends of WTO with special emphasis laid on the politics of regional trading blocs in this book The ever expanding consensus on the co existence of politics and economics is evident from the treatment of the topic on WTO The book thus unfolds the deficiencies and imbalances witnessed under the WTO system and points to the critical choices to be made by the member nations of WTO in future negotiations The Development Dimension Agriculture and Development The Case for Policy Coherence

OECD,2005-11-18 Agriculture and Development OECD 2005 discusses the extent to which OECD country agricultural and agricultural trade policies are coherent with and supportive of the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals particularly the elimination of extreme poverty and hunger Fostering Trade in Africa Gbadebo O.A. Odularu,Mena Hassan,Musibau Adetunji Babatunde,2020-03-09 This book discusses trade relations and facilitation issues at both the regional and the continental African level highlighting the increasing business opportunities and challenges that confront Africa in the digital age It also examines the effects of trade policies and other policy instruments on Africa s economic development and presents workable policy measures for a more business friendly ecosystem Discussing various topics including trade relations between African countries African and international trade agreements and trade liberalization policies the book appeals to scholars of economics business and management as well as professionals and policymakers interested in fostering free trade and sustainable business development in Africa Mobilizing Aid For Trade Inter

American Development Bank,2006-09-14 This report was prepared by the Integration and Trade Sector INT as a contribution to the regional meeting on Mobilizing Aid for Trade Latin America and the Caribbean organized jointly by the IDB and the World Trade Organization WTO in collaboration with the World Bank and hosted by the Government of Peru in Lima on September 13 14 2007 The meeting is the first of three regional meetings organized by the WTO to prepare for its November 2007 General Council meeting on aid for trade Policy Priorities for International Trade and Jobs OECD,2012-05-23

Launched and co ordinated by the OECD the International Collaborative Initiative on Trade and Employment ICITE is a two year old joint undertaking of ten international organisations This book brings together some of the results of ICITE s research

Trade Relations Between the EU and Africa Yenkong Ngangjoh-Hodu,Francis A.S.T. Matambalya,2009-10-16 Trade liberalisation and openness as linchpins for development have been flagships of conventional economic policy advices to most African countries over the last few decades Much of the orientation of the focus however has been on the impact of international trade on development rather than the requirements that development should inform the shaping of the international trading system so that African countries may be able to benefit from such trade This view has permeated both academic debate and the Economic Partnership Agreement EPA Negotiation between the European Commission and groups of African Caribbean and Pacific ACP States This timely volume advances an alternative set of inter related interdisciplinary perspectives and debates which contribute to overlapping genres and discourses notably how rules of origins may stifle the development dimension of EPAs how special agricultural safeguards may be used in balancing the effects of trade liberalisation on small farm holders in Africa It also discusses the centrality of aid for trade in trade negotiations and mainstreaming development in the EPAs debate to enhance domestic supply side in Africa and the various regional integration processes in the region This book focuses on areas of trade that may inform the development dimension of international trade With this edited volume a team of specialists provide a comprehensive survey of ACP EU trade and Africa trade relation in the global context placing it in its legal economic and political contexts The book innovative approach coupled with a stimulating and accessible writing style allows the reader to engage fully with the content It will be of most value to students scholars and related policymakers of international development and trade economics Trade in the 21st Century Bernard M. Hoekman, Ernesto Zedillo, 2021-01-19 Despite troubled trade negotiations global trade and trade policy will thrive in the twenty first century but with a bow to the past Is the multilateral trading order of the twentieth century a historical artifact Was the creation of the World Trade Organization in 1995 the high point of multilateral cooperation on trade This new volume edited by Bernard M Hoekman and Ernesto Zedillo assesses the relevance of the WTO in the context of the rise of China and the United States turn toward unilateral protectionism The contributors adopt a historical perspective to discuss changes in global trade policy trends adducing lessons from the past to help understand current trade tensions Topics include responses to U S protectionism under the Trump administration the policy dimensions of trade in services and the rise of the digital economy how to strengthen the WTO to better negotiate new rules of the game and adjudicate disputes managing China s integration into the global trade system and the implications of global value chains for economic development policies By reflecting on past episodes of protectionism and how they were resolved Trade in the 21st Century provides both context and guidance on how trade challenges can be addressed in the coming decades Regional Approaches to the Protection of Asylum Seekers Ademola Abass, 2016-04-08 This book presents a comprehensive assessment of regional responses to the crisis in the asylum refugee system and critically examines how different regions tackle the problem The chapters consider the fundamental challenges which undermine an effective asylum process as well as regional difficulties with the various circumstances surrounding asylum seekers With contributions on Africa Europe Latin America South Asia and the Middle East and the Pacific the collection strives to appreciate what informs each region s approach to the asylum process and asks if there are issues common to every region and if regions can learn from one another The book seeks an understanding of the existing legal regime for the protection of asylum seekers and how regional institutions such as human rights commissions and regional courts enforce and adjudicate the law The volume will be valuable to those interested in international law migration and human rights
