Joseph Rudyard Kipling (1865-1936) was an English short story writer, poet, and novelist. He wrote tales and poems of British soldiers in India and stories for children. He is regarded as a major innovator in the art of the short story; his children's books are classics of children's literature, and one critic described his work as exhibiting a versatile and luminous narrative gift.

Rudyard Kipling: Collected Works Rudyard Kipling, 2022-05-17 Rudyard Kipling's Collected Works showcases the breadth of Kipling's literary genius, encompassing his short stories, poems, and novels that traverse the blurry lines between adventure, imperialism, and human experience. Featuring his renowned works such as The Jungle Book and Kim, this collection reflects Kipling's distinctive prose style, characterized by vivid imagery and rhythmic language. His narratives often delve into the intrigues of British colonialism, presenting a complex view of the East through the eyes of Western characters, making his works both topical and timeless amidst the historical context of the British Empire. Rudyard Kipling (1865-1936) was born in British India, which profoundly influenced his literary output. His upbringing in a colonial environment allowed him to explore themes of identity and cultural intersectionality, as seen in his portrayal of diverse characters and settings. Kipling's experiences as a war correspondent and his fascination with folklore and the oral tradition informed his storytelling, further heightening the emotional gravity of his work. This Collected Works is an essential read for anyone interested in the complexities of colonial literature and the human condition. With rich narratives and poetic elegance, Kipling's writings offer both an immersive escape and a critical lens on society, making this collection a vital addition to any literary library.

Letting Loose the Hounds Brady Udall, 2025-04-25 Funny, unpredictable, and abounding with strange beauty, a fierce new voice of the American

West Outside Exploding with an unsettling exuberance Brady Udall's stories traverse a geography of lost love fragmented lives and satisfying revenge From the night a six foot three Apache Indian holding a goat steps into a moonlit Arizona backyard in Midnight Raid to the pivotal moment when a man delirious from a dental extraction gets rescued by a stranger in the title story Udall injects his stories and characters with equal parts darkness and humor These are sad and sweet stories moving from the familiar to surprising destinations But even when disaster looms Udall's fine comic sense sustains his men and women in their sometimes extravagant efforts to connect and cope Plunged in the moment these stories have velocity they spray gravel as they take off
