Responsive Becoming: Moral Formation in Theological, Evolutionary, and Developmental Perspective Angela Carpenter, 2019-04-18 This volume offers an interdisciplinary study of Reformed sanctification and human development providing the foundation for a constructive account of Christian moral formation that is attentive both to divine grace and to the significance of natural embodied processes Angela Carpenter's argument also addresses the impressions that such theologies give namely either solitude in the face of adversity or sheer passivity Through careful examination of the doctrine of sanctification in three Reformed theologians John Calvin John Owen and Horace Bushnell Carpenter argues that human responsiveness in the context of fellowship with the triune God provides a basic framework for a theological account of moral transformation Her relational approach brings together divine and human agency in a dynamic process where both are indispensable Supplying an account of moral formation located within Christian salvation while also being attentive to embodied human nature and the sciences this book is vital to all those interested in spiritual formation and the human capacity for love

Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, 1978 Public Health Service Publication, 1967 The Kantian Imperative Paul Saurette, 2005-01-01 In this book the author challenges this interpretation by arguing that Kant's imperative is actually based on a problematic appeal to common sense and that it is premised on and seeks to further cultivate and intensify the feeling of humiliation in every moral subject Discerning the influence of this model on historical and contemporary political thought and philosophy the author explores its particular impact on the work of two contemporary thinkers Charles Taylor and Jürgen Habermas The author also shows that an analysis of the Kantian imperative allows a better understanding of specific current political issues such as the U S military scandal at Abu Ghraib in Iraq and of broader ones such as post 9 11 foreign policy This book thus demonstrates that Kant's moral philosophy and political theory are as relevant today as at any other time in history Half t p

Christianity and Moral Identity in Higher Education P. Glanzer,T. Ream,2009-11-23 This book offers examples from both Christian and secular democratic institutions of higher education and then responds to possible criticisms about how moral education in a comprehensive humanist moral tradition may short change diversity autonomy and critical thinking Just Peace Theory Book One Valerie Elverton Dixon,2012-11 In these essays I often refer to social contracts such as the Declaration of Independence the Constitution of the United States the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other international conventions that describe a vision of just human relations especially in the area of culture and health care We do not live behind a veil of ignorance where we enter into contemplation of questions of right and wrong without an awareness of our own particularities Moreover we do not always determine what is right based on reason But we do make decisions every day about how we will live within the social contracts that govern our lives Many of us go along to get along with a let s not rock the boat preserve the status quocaution Then there are those of us who use the documents of our social contracts to secure more justice and more peace The purpose is to rock the boat and to disrupt the status quo when it is unjust I understand Christ as a title not as a person It is a designation of an anointing This in my opinion is the anointing of radical love Christ is the human incarnation of divine love We each ought to strive to become this whether or not we are Christian whether or not we are even believers Those of us who are Christians believe that Jesus paid it all There is no more need for blood shed sacrifice Murder is never holy God does not need it or want it Our work now is to become living sacrifices that will redeem this world through justice and peace That is the meaning of these essays From the Introduction
