The Churches Of Rome 1527 1870 Vol I The Churches:

The Churches of Rome, 1527-1870 Michael Erwee, 2014 The churches of Rome constitute arguably the most important manifestations of art and architecture in the Western world This book is a detailed description of 251 churches in Rome and the Vatican City built or decorated between 1527 and 1870 and is based on extensive research in state church and private archives as well as an exhaustive survey of modern and historical bibliographical sources Its aim is to provide a more complete picture of the construction and decoration of these churches than previously known This entails not only providing the names of the architects who designed the churches but also the names of the masons muratori and stone cutters scalpellini who built the churches and whose skills were essential for realising the architect s plans This depth of information is carried through to the interior decorations The interior of each church is then described in depth on a chapel by chapel basis and includes stucco work marble revetment monuments metal work fresco and painted decorations and altarpieces For each church a brief historical introduction is given and a general bibliography supplied Archival research has brought to light a great number of works of art whose authorship and or dates have hitherto been unknown including works by well known artists but also many that are unknown to scholars A great number of works of art whose authorship has hitherto been unknown are published in this volume for the first time An alphabetic index of artists consisting of over two thousand names is supplied and includes the churches where their works are to be found and accurate biographical information for each artist In addition there is an index of patrons and a street and rione index Also provided are the names and contact details of the archives consulted in researching this book The book is intended to be used as a reference and resource book as well as to be used by visitors to these churches It is lavishly illustrated with photographs Michael Erwee was born in Zambia He received his doctorate from the University of Sydney and was awarded an Alexander von Humboldt post doctorate scholarship from the German Government At present he is an independent researcher Altarpieces and Their Viewers in the Churches of Rome from Caravaggio to Guido Reni Pamela M. Jones, 2017-07-05 A social history of reception this study focuses on sacred art and Catholicism in Rome during the late sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The five altarpieces examined here were painted by artists who are admired today Caravaggio Guercino and Guido Reni and by the less renowned but once influential Tommaso Laureti and Andrea Commodi By shifting attention from artistic intentionality to reception Pamela Jones reintegrates these altarpieces into the urban fabric of early modern Rome allowing us to see the five paintings anew through the eyes of their original audiences both women and men rich and poor pious and impious Because Italian churchmen relied after the Council of Trent on public altarpieces more than any other type of contemporary painting in their attempts to reform and inspire Catholic society it is on altarpieces that Pamela Jones centers her inquiry Through detailed study of evidence in many genres including not only painting prints and art criticism but also cheap pamphlets drama sermons devotional tracts rules of religious orders pilgrimages rituals diaries and letters Jones shows how various beholders made meaning of the altarpieces in their aesthetic devotional social and charitable dimensions This study presents early modern Catholicism and its art in an entirely new light by addressing the responses of members of all social classes not just elites to art created for the public It also provides a more accurate view of the range of religious ideas that circulated in early modern Rome by bringing to bear both officially sanctioned religious art and literature and unauthorized but widely disseminated cheap pamphlets and prints that were published without the mandatory religious permission On this basis Jones helps to illuminate further the insurmountable problems churchmen faced when attempting to channel the power of sacred art to elicit orthodox responses The Churches of Rome, 1527-1870: without special title Michael Erwee,2014
