

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they built?	They would certainly gain access to rockets that were better. They had a better delivery system than the U.S. could offer.	They might develop better in case of an emergency, but they didn't know anyone thought they should make them. They would all be used to deliver nuclear bombs.
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really.	Some people in Europe wanted more independence and were suspicious.
4. Would the two nations agree to build rockets together?	Yes, the governments had no objection. They had no commercial interest.	Yes, everyone would see improved air would not take as much as the Soviets.

2. What do you think the results of the following are, according to the passage?

• The United States would make satellites

• They would build satellites together under Soviet control

• Soviet rockets. The governments the satellites were made

• The Soviet Union would have the satellites and rockets
