Internet Oliver H. U. Heathcote, 2002 Perhaps everything about the Internet leaves you feeling confused and puzzled or maybe you've seen it briefly and need more information. There has never been a better time to start. Whether you want to look up train times, think up questions for a trivia quiz or e-mail your cousins in Australia, this book takes you through it in simple straightforward English. Internet Right from the Start is a useful guide for 16-18 year olds on introductory ICT courses and adults either at work attending evening class or learning on a home PC. This book develops ICT skills starting from the very basics through to an intermediate level. You will learn how to look up and search for information on the Internet. Use maps sites to get directions if you are going somewhere unfamiliar. Download pictures, music and software. Shop for groceries, CDs or even a house online. E-mail documents and photos across the world for the cost of a local phone call. Chat with friends and colleagues online. Saving text and graphics.

Life and Laughing Michael McIntyre, 2010-10-14 Discover Michael McIntyre's hilarious life story in Life and Laughing. Michael McIntyre is Britain's biggest comedy star. He has released two record breaking DVDs Live and Laughing and Hello Wembley, hosts his own BAFTA nominated BBC1 series Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow and has picked up British Comedy Awards for Best Live Stand Up and Best Male TV Comic. Last year he became the youngest ever host of the Royal Variety Performance and now in 2011 he takes the hot seat as a judge in the hit ITV show Britain's Got Talent. How did he get there? Michael reveals all in his remarkably honest and hilarious autobiography. His showbiz roots, his appalling attempts to attract the opposite sex, his fish out of water move from public to state school and his astonishing journey from selling just one ticket at the Edinburgh Festival to selling half a million tickets on his last tour. Michael McIntyre's Life and Laughing is riveting, poignant, romantic and above all very, very funny. Michael McIntyre was born in South London in 1976 to parents from the world of showbiz. His Hungarian mother was a dancer and his Canadian father co-wrote The Kenny Everett Television Show. Now he is a stand-up comedian who in 2009 sold out a record six nights at Wembley Arena and four nights at London's O2. Michael lives in North London with his wife Kitty and their sons Lucas and Oscar. This is his first book.

Architectural Colour in the Professional Palette Fiona McLachlan, 2013-08-15 How do architects use color? Do they adopt a different strategy or starting point for every project? Do they gradually cultivate individual color palettes which develop alongside their body of built work? Do they utilize or are they aware of the body of theoretical work that underpins the use of color in the past and forms the basis of most of the color systems commercially available today Informed by the author's thirty years in architectural practice and academia this book investigates documents and analyzes the work of a number of contemporary architects in order to respond to these questions and provide a clear reference of contemporary color use The book suggests a holistic approach to the integration of color in architecture through a series of thematic essays the text explores and reveals underlying principles in color design and application Case studies include AHMM Caruso St John Erich Wiesner and Otto Steidle Gigon Guyer O Donnell Tuomey Sauerbruch Hutton Steven Holl UN Studio The book provides clear insights into how particular contemporary architects use color confidently and intelligently as an integral part of their design philosophy in conjunction with their choices of materials and finishes Offering a stimulating view of the history of color theory and pragmatic advice to practicing architects this book will be inspiring to both design professionals and students Popular Science, 1996-06
