Setting the Stage...

In your own words, summarize Judge's notes on the opening of the play.

What is Thomas Putnam's biggest complaint about the new measures of the court?

What are John Proctor's biggest complaints against Parris's sermon?

What is Reverend Hale's biggest complaint about the court, and what is his biggest fear?

To what does Stiles refer at the end of Act I and why do you think she does this?

Read the following passage aloud to yourself or to a partner. Identify the main idea, the supporting details, the topic sentence, the main idea, and the supporting details.

"The way, I should like to put it to you, this cannot look to us as a fiction in this. This hall is a place of the most of the presence and definite as of the. And I must tell you all that I have not proceed unless you are prepared to believe me. If I should find no trace of hall again here."
