Force Journal and Register ,1924 Conversations with Dad Deborah Wenzler Farris,2017-06-08 What do you do when youve lost a parent and the other is suddenly alone Deborah Wenzler Farris started spending lots of time with her dad William Bill Wenzler This book is the result and tells a universal story It is layered with the authors personal account of her walk with her parents as they aged and their health declined Rich with memories of her fathers life adventures and career as a noted architect Conversations with Dad grew out of time spent together father and daughter going to church sharing meals and the stories of those who paved the way for her Told with tenderness and humor it is a love story the love of a man for his wife and family his love for his work and church and the love of a daughter for her mom and dad Wenzler a designer of beautiful practical buildings who loved a Lord who makes practical beautiful people out of failing feeble sinners and loved those people too You will love this book Stuart Briscoe Minister at Large Elmbrook Church My Son, Bli. Mandy Aitken,2016-04-23 In the weeks following the death of my son Tony aged just Thirteen I started writing his memoirs as cathartic therapy in an effort to make some sense of the turmoil I was experiencing and to contain the anger I was feeling Tony was to experience many prejudices in his life Bullied from a young age racism and from the age of nine he was to live as a diabetic that proved to be brittle and difficult to control Tony always rose to his challenges with a winning smile and a maturity that belied his age He experienced premonitions including his own death He was a strange mysterious child but he enriched the lives of all those who knew him I know Tony would wish for any person working in the medical or educational fields To read his book thereby preventing any other child suffering the injustices he was forced to endure I still take strength from my son every single day and for all bereaved parents that feel such isolation please read my book You are not alone Living with the Evidence Thomas Q. King,2017-02-22 The stories within these pages tell of my life from the beginning of my time on earth These tell of my first days and how they changed my life forever the many struggles that I encountered because of events early in my life the many difficult times that I faced and how I hid these from others for over sixty years I keep my story as the main subject Many who knew me in the early years were amazed of the events in my life Some cried and others were speechless That was not what I expected but it was a surprise to me With over 150 stories this covers many events of my life I looked at many things that I had to deal with because of how I lived in my early years I can recall shedding tears every day for over seven years I wish this to happen to nobody else But I did not have a choice both my parents took that away from me Some told me that I was too easy on them I will leave their judgment up to the Creator Their judgment will come I dont need to add fuel to their future I needed my story to be presented to show what could happen when parents harm their children Harm can come to children in many ways and I present many of mine Across the Prairie in a Motor Caravan Reformed Presbytery,2013-10-23 Excerpt The diocese of Qu Appelle in the province of Saskatchewan Western Canada is so named from the Indian story which tells of the maiden who lay dying calling piteously for her lover He far off in his canoe on the Saskatchewan River suddenly heard a voice and answered Qu Appelle The voice

came again and then he knew it for that of his beloved and made all speed to her side But alas when he reached her she was dead Qu Appelle is a suggestive title and indicative of the call which so many have heard from the prairie provinces a twofold call urging some to earthly and some to spiritual husbandry Some account of the Western Canada of to day may be useful here

The Afterlife in Popular Culture Kevin O'Neill, 2022-06-17 The Afterlife in Popular Culture Heaven Hell and the Underworld in the American Imagination gives students a fresh look at how Americans view the afterlife helping readers understand how it is depicted in popular culture What happens to us when we die The book seeks to explore how that question has been answered in American popular culture It begins with five framing essays that provide historical and intellectual background on ideas about the afterlife in Western culture These essays are followed by more than 100 entries each focusing on specific cultural products or authors that feature the afterlife front and center Entry topics include novels film television shows plays works of nonfiction graphic novels and more all of which address some aspect of what may await us after our passing This book is unique in marrying a historical overview of the afterlife with detailed analyses of particular cultural products such as films and novels In addition it covers these topics in nonspecialist language written with a student audience in mind The book provides historical context for contemporary depictions of the afterlife addressed in the entries which deal specifically with work produced in the 20th and 21st centuries
