Intersectionality and Difference in Childhood and Youth Nadia von Benzon, Catherine Wilkinson, 2019-05-08 This book explores the alternative experiences of children and young people whose everyday lives contradict ideas and ideals of normalcy from the local to the global context Presenting empirical research and conceptual interventions from a variety of international contexts this book seeks to contribute to understandings of alterity agency and everyday precarity The young lives foregrounded in this volume include the experiences of transnational families children in ethnic minority communities street living young people disabled children child soldiers victims of abuse politically active young people working children and those engaging with alternative education By exploring other ways of being doing and thinking about childhood this book addresses questions around what it is to be a child and what it is to be marginalised in society The narratives explore the everydayness and the mundanity of difference as they are experienced through social structures and relationships simultaneously recognizing and critiquing notions of agency and power This book including a discussion resource for teaching or peer reading groups will appeal to academics students and researchers across subject disciplines including Human Geography Children s Geography Social Care and Childhood Studies English for the Australian Curriculum Book 1 Brenton Doecke,Pam Macintyre,Graham Parr,Natalie Bellis,Scot Bulfin,Kelli McGraw,Lisa McNeice,Karen Moni,Gary Simmons,2011-04 English for the Australian Curriculum Book 1 privileges student experience creative engagement with texts moments of reflection and deep thinking Drawing on an inquiry model of learning it provides opportunities for students to write and create their own texts Written for the Australian Curriculum English for the Australian Curriculum Book 1 provides a fully balanced and integrated approach to the study of language literature and literacy It actively engages students with texts at a variety of levels Develops language skills at word sentence and text level with activities in reading writing viewing creating listening and speaking Encourages student writing across a variety of contexts for a variety of purposes and for a variety of audiences Underlines the importance of visual literacy Provides opportunities for students to create their own multimodal texts How to Read Like an Anti-Fascist Annette Wannamaker,2025-06-03 On the urgent need to promote critical reading skills amidst rising authoritarianism Children s author Philip Pullman famously said that There are some themes some subjects too large for adult fiction they can only be dealt with adequately in a children s book While the recent rise of fascist ideology in the United States might seem a subject too large and adult to be dealt with in literature for children or teens Annette Wannamaker proposes in How to Read Like an Anti Fascist that there are books aimed at future generations which critique and counter fascist propaganda and mythmaking Works of literature can reflect fascist ideology and promote it as well but Wannamaker proposes that some books also offer tools for understanding it Books written for beginners can introduce readers to complex concepts break big ideas into manageable parts and teach readers how to read the world outside of the book Antifascist books are ones that analyze fascist rhetoric and storytelling educate about America s long history of authoritarianism and highlight various facets of fascism such as scapegoating others and reasserting patriarchal power From The Emperor s New Clothes and the tales of Superman to Mildred Taylor s Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry the 1619 Project and contemporary works such as All Boys Aren t Blue and Donald Builds the Wall Wannamaker shows how the ethos of authoritarianism is characterized by a strict hierarchy that places children at its very bottom In doing so she argues convincingly that books written for young people can provide a particular view from the bottom a perspective well suited to interrogating systems of power Racial Feelings Jeffrey Santa Ana,2015-06-12 In Racial Feelings Jeffrey Santa Ana examines how Asian American narratives communicate and critique to varying degrees the emotions that power the perception of Asians as racially different Santa Ana explores various forms of

Asian American cultural production ranging from literature and graphic narratives to film and advertising to illuminate the connections between global economic relations and the emotions that shape aspirations for the good life He illustrates his argument with examples including the destitute Filipino immigrant William Paulinha in Han Ong's Fixer Chao who targets his anger on the capitalist forces of objectification that racially exploit him and Nan and Pingpin in Ha Jin's A Free Life who seek happiness and belonging in America Racial Feelings addresses how Asian Americans both resist and rely on stereotypes in their writing and art work In addition Santa Ana investigates how capitalism shapes and structures an emotional discourse that represents Asians as both economic exemplars and threats
