Cyberbullies, Cyberactivists, Cyberpredators Lauren Rosewarne,2016-01-25 Written by an expert in media popular culture gender and sexuality this book surveys the common archetypes of Internet users from geeks nerds and gamers to hackers scammers and predators and assesses what these stereotypes reveal about our culture's attitudes regarding gender technology intimacy and identity The Internet has enabled an exponentially larger number of people individuals who are members of numerous and vastly different subgroups to be exposed to one other As a result instead of the simple jocks versus geeks paradigm of previous eras our society now has more detailed stereotypes of the undesirable the under the radar and the ostracized cyberperverts neckbeards goths tech nerds and anyone with a non heterosexual identity Each chapter of this book explores a different stereotype of the Internet user with key themes such as gender technophobia and sexuality explored with regard to that specific characterization of online users Author Lauren Rosewarne PhD supplies a highly interdisciplinary perspective that draws on research and theories from a range of fields psychology sociology and communications studies as well as feminist theory film theory political science and philosophy to analyze what these stereotypes mean in the context of broader social and cultural issues From cyberbullies to chronically masturbating porn addicts to desperate online daters readers will see the paradox in popular culture's message that while Internet use is universal actual Internet users are somehow subpar less desirable less cool less friendly than everybody else Public City Beau B Beza, Brendan Gleeson, 2014-11-25 Paul Mees urban ideal counted on watchful confident and well informed citizenry to work collectively in a quest for fair and just cities As such The Public City is largely a critique of neo liberalism and its arguably negative influence on urban prospects As Mees explained it neo liberal urbanism was much more than a political aberration it was a threat that imposed many costly failures in an age overshadowed by grave ecological challenges Fifteen of Australia and New Zealand's leading urban scholars including Professor Emeritus Jean Hillier and Professor Brendan Gleeson have contributed to this collection The Public City includes a foreword by the late Professor Sir Peter Hall a world leader in urban planning from Britain Kenneth Davidson one of Australia's top economic columnists has also contributed a chapter The collective works in this book extend beyond an analysis of urban patterns to provide a blueprint for the improvement of civic and institutional purpose in the creation of the public city Slivers, Shards & Skerricks Shaun Micallef, 2024-10-29 This indefinite collection brings together under one cover the very best comic writing parody poetry prose plays philosophy and political treatise by Australia's greatest living television host From I Was Scott Morrison's Schnoodle and Around the World in One Pair of Underpants to the deliciously decadent recipe for Satyricon Surprise SHAUN MICALLEF's sublime anthology has it all THRILL to the meta ironic existential crisis in the Rocky universe GASP as you learn what happened to Scrooge in the days following A Christmas Carol DISCOVER what it takes to pass for human in an increasingly convoluted post Robodebt world PLUS there are limericks like this There once was a poet who thought Using words like fought ought and wrought Brought a purity sought But it all came to nought When he ended his last line with drought Archives and Emotions Ilaria Scaglia, Valeria Vanesio, 2024-11-14 Archives and Emotions argues at its most fundamental level that emotions matter and have always mattered to both the people whose histories are documented by archives and to those working with the documents these contain This is the first study to put archivists and historians scholars and practitioners from different settings geographical provenance and stages of career in conversation with one another to examine the interplay of a broad range of emotions and archives traditional and digital from the eighteenth to the twenty first centuries across national and disciplinary borders Drawing on methodologies from the history of emotions and critical archival studies this book provides an original analysis of two interconnected themes through a selected number of case studies the emotional dynamics affecting the construction and management of archives and the emotions and their effects on the people engaging with them such as archivists researchers and a broad range of communities Its main message is that critically investigating the history and mechanics of emotions including their suppression and exclusion also being conscious of their effects on people and societies is essential to understanding how archives came to hold deep civic and ethical implications for both present and future This study thus establishes a solid base for future scholarship and interdisciplinary collaborations and challenges academic and non academic readers to think work and train new generations differently fully aware that past and present choices have and might again hurt inspire empower or silence
