Documentary and Verbatim Theatre Stuart Young, 2025-12-12 Documentary and Verbatim Theatre surveys the emergence and rise of work based on real life in contemporary theatre exploring the artists methodologies plays and central themes that have characterised its enduring popularity After charting the recent history of modern documentary theatre in the twentieth century and the debates that have surrounded it in the past thirty years each chapter examines in depth key practices such as headphone verbatim and extreme verbatim and practitioners from Anna Deavere Smith and David Hare to The Civilians and DV8 Physical Theatre Practitioners chosen topics playwriting process and engagement with sometimes fraught debates in the field are brought to the fore Focusing on the various dramaturgical and theatrical strategies used to create and stage documentary theatre this book provides a practice centric understanding of some of the principal issues related to the form including the tensions between fidelity to the documentary or verbatim record and the exercise of artistic licence the ethical issues entailed in representing living people the implications for actors and our understanding of acting and our assumptions about aesthetic distancing This is an essential introduction to documentary and verbatim theatre for theatre studies students teachers and scholars as well as theatre practitioners

Performing the testimonial Amanda Stuart Fisher, 2020-08-04 Providing one of the first critically sustained engagements with the new forms of verbatim and testimonial theatre that emerged in the late 1990s and early 2000s this book examines what distinguishes verbatim theatre from the more established documentary theatre traditions developed initially by Peter Weiss Bertolt Brecht and Erwin Piscator Examining a wide range of verbatim and testimonial plays from around the world this book looks beyond the discourses of the real that have tended to dominate scholarship in this area and instead argues that this kind of theatre engages in acts of truth telling Through its analysis of a range of international plays from UK Germany America Australia and South Africa the book explores theatre's dramaturgical interrogation of testimony and how the act of witnessing itself is reconfigured when relocated outside of the psychoanalytic frame and positioned as contributing to a decolonisation of testimony

The New War Plays J. Boll, 2013-10-18 How can war be represented on stage How does the theatre examine the structures leading to violence and war and explore their transformation of societies Springing from the discussion about New Wars in the age of globalisation this interdisciplinary study demonstrates how these New Wars bring forth new plays about war Beyond Documentary Realism Cyrielle Garson, 2021-02-22 Verbatim theatre a type of performance based on actual words spoken by real people has been at the heart of a remarkable and unexpected renaissance of the genre in Great Britain since the mid nineties The central aim of the book is to critically explore and account for the relationship between contemporary British verbatim theatre and realism whilst questioning the much debated mediation of the real in these theatre practices Political and Protest Theatre after 9/11 Jenny Spencer, 2011-12-22 This collection documents and examines political and protest theatre produced between the 9 11 attacks in 2001 and Obama s election in 2008 by British and American artists responding to their own governments actions and policies during this time The plays take up topics such as the ongoing wars on terror Blair s support of U S policies the flawed intelligence that led to the Iraq war and illegal detentions and torture at Abu Ghraib The authors argue that engaged artists faced a radically different sociopolitical context for their work after 9 11 compared to earlier social protest movements and new forms of theatre and different emotional strategies were necessary to meet the challenges The subtitle Patriotic Dissent suggests the double stance of many artists influenced by patriotic expressions of national solidarity yet critical of the ways that patriotic language was put to use against others The articles represent a broad range of theatre Broadway musicals documentary theatre adaptations of classical theatre new plays by British playwrights street performances and installations and musical concerts The contributors case studies evaluate the effectiveness of important instances of political theatre and protest from this decade arguing for the significance relevance and continuing necessity for evolving forms of political theatre today Naming Theatre J. Frieze, 2009-10-16 Reading a range of work from the US and UK over the last two decades this is an innovative study of theatre s growing obsession with technologies and effects of naming How does theatre reflect and intervene in naming practices across domains such as philosophy computing journalism anthropology advertising military training and genetics Theatre-Making D. Radosavljevic, 2013-06-24 Theatre Making explores modes of authorship in contemporary theatre seeking to transcend the heritage of binaries from the Twentieth century such as text based vs devised theatre East vs West theatre vs performance with reference to genealogies though which these categories have been constructed in the English speaking world Aesthetics and Ideology in Contemporary Literature and Drama René Agostini, Madelena Gonzalez, 2015-09-10 The conviction that the development and promotion of the arts humanities and culture through the study of literature and the aesthetic are the fundamental constituents of any progress in society is at the heart of this volume The essays gathered here explore the role of the imagination and aesthetic awareness in an age when the corporatization of knowledge is in the process of transforming literary studies and political commitment is in danger of disappearing behind a supposedly post ideological late capitalist consensus The main focus of the volume is the mutual implication of aesthetics and ideology and the status and value of different types of art within the political arena Challenging issues in contemporary aesthetics are examined within the wider framework of current debates on the disappearance of the real the crisis in representation and the use of new media The wide range of examples collected here stretching from experimental poetry in post war Germany political commitment in twentieth century French theatre and countercultural Rumanian theatre under Ceau escu to Neo Victorian fiction Verbatim theatre in the UK and political theatre for the masses in Estonia vouchsafe unique insights into the intersection of aesthetics and ideology and the practical consequences thereof As such the volume opens up a space for a meaningful engagement with authentic forms of art from inside and outside the Anglosphere and ultimately uses these examples as a platform from which to imagine some form of aesthetics representing an ideal union of aesthetics and ideology This concept first coined by the French philosopher Philippe Lacoue Labarthe will prove to be relevant both within the parameters of the examples discussed here but also beyond for the contributors to this volume are unanimous in refusing to believe that aesthetics and ideology can exist one without the other and in recognizing the centrality of ethics in any discussion of these notions A Concise
