Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children s learning

TALKING GOD'S HOUSE PET Susan Fadler, 2015-06-05 R U F F is an acronym that stands for Reservations Unwanted Four Footed Friends and started by Susan Fadler in the early 1990s Organized for establishing homes for the unwanted and neglected animals on the Navajo Reservation Susan began taking rescued animals into classrooms to help teach the children about animal behavior care and health She soon found out that using an animal helped extrapolate expressions of emotions which would otherwise be harbored or unexpressed by the child It also incorporated self esteem where all else had failed Using a natural catalyst puppies and kittens to teach responsible behavior proved to be extremely effective Teachers began requesting materials to help teach history geography culture and language The Wilson Foundation was instrumental in providing the necessary funding to get Susan s curriculum written It was nominated by teachers and administrators in 1996 and went on to win the 1st place Golden Bell award from the ASBA as a best new curriculum that year 100 Top Picks for Homeschool Curriculum Cathy Duffy,2005 A critical volume for the homeschooling community that helps parents make informed choices regarding learning styles and curriculum
