Pham,2022-08-08 In 2016 social media users in Thailand called out the Paris based luxury fashion house Balenciaga for copying the popular Thai rainbow bag using Balenciaga s hashtags to circulate memes revealing the source of the bags design In Why We Can t Have Nice Things Minh Ha T Pham examines the way social media users monitor the fashion market for the appearance of knockoff fashion design theft and plagiarism Tracing the history of fashion antipiracy efforts back to the 1930s she foregrounds the work of policing that has been tacitly outsourced to social media Despite the social media concern for ethical fashion and consumption and the good intentions behind design policing Pham shows that it has ironically deepened forms of social and market inequality as it relies on and reinforces racist and colonial norms and ideas about what constitutes copying and what counts as creativity These struggles over ethical fashion and intellectual property Pham demonstrates constitute deeper struggles over the colonial legacies of cultural property in digital and global economies

Standard & Poor's Stock Reports ,2009-11 International Broadcasting and Its Contested Role in Australian Statecraft Geoff Heriot,2023-03-14 This book offers an insightful reappraisal of international broadcasting as discursive rather than soft power in service of democratic statecraft This at a time when issues of transnational media the credibility of news and the perils of disinformation and information warfare figure worryingly in public discourse Reflecting the perspective of middle power Australia author Geoff Heriot locates the strategic utility of multiplatform international broadcasting with reference to contemporary theories of soft hard smart power projection and intercultural communication He applies a fresh model of strategic analysis to the political history of Radio Australia examining the various external and internal variables that resulted in its flawed success in political communication during the late Cold War period

African Gold Roman Grynberg, Fwasa K. Singogo, 2021-03-19 The book explores the evolving economics of gold as a global commodity as well as the production and trade of gold in and from the African continent The growth of gold as an increasingly important and diverse source of African wealth is examined alongside the impact that the rise of China in the 21st century has had on the demand for gold The volatility of the gold price has increased as a result of the dramatic decline of gold demand for manufacturing purposes Gold is Africa's second largest export after oil and is a perfect metaphor for a continent rich in resources while so much of its population lives in such dire poverty The artisanal and small scale gold mining ASGM sector is surprisingly widely perceived as being beneficial to the development of Africa despite its exploitation and dreadful health and environmental consequences African Gold Production Trade and Economic Development considers policy issues regarding the gold mining sector the economics of beneficiation the retreat of jewelry manufacturing across the continent as well as Africa's golden future It is a relevant book for both academics and policymakers interested in Africa natural resource and development economics

Draft International Development (Official Development Assistance Target) Bill Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee, 2010-03-23 In 1970 the UN General Assembly called on the economically advanced countries to provide 0.7% of their income as Official Development Assistance ODA by the middle of the decade In 2004 the UK committed to meet the target by 2013 The Government proposes to enshrine in law its commitment to meet the target in 2010 and each subsequent year Whilst the legislation is widely welcomed the Committee remains uncertain that it will have the wider impact claimed The accountability measures contained in the draft Bill weaken the commitment and provide the Government with an easy excuse for not meeting the target The 2002 International Development Act stipulates that DFID's expenditure on ODA should have poverty reduction as its primary objective With increasing pressure to find additional finance for responding to climate change or to new types of security threats there is a danger that increased amounts of UK ODA will be used for purposes only marginally related to poverty reduction The Government must take appropriate steps to guard against this whether or not the Bill becomes law Ultimately the Committee supports the 0.7% goal and feels the UK should maintain and build on its reputation as a donor
