The Essential Guide to Handling Workplace Harassment &

Discrimination Deborah C. England, 2024-09 Create effective policies and procedures learn how to investigate and respond to complaints and prevent discrimination and harassment lawsuits

Speechless Bruce Barry, 2007-06-10 Exposes the shameful fact that most Americans are forced to check their civil liberties and especially their freedom of speech at the workplace door Barbara Ehrenreich New York Times bestselling author A factory worker is fired because her boss disagrees with her political bumper sticker A stockbroker feels pressure to resign from an employer who disapproves of his off hours political advocacy A flight attendant is grounded because her airline doesn't like what she's writing in her personal blog Is it legal to fire people for speech that makes employers uncomfortable even if the content has little or nothing to do with their job or workplace For most American workers the alarming answer is yes In Speechless Bruce Barry argues that a toxic combination of law conventional economic wisdom and accepted managerial practice has created an American workplace in which freedom of speech that most crucial of civil liberties in a healthy democracy is something you do after work on your own time and even then for many only if your employer approves Barry proposes changes both to the law and to management practice that would expand employees expressive rights without jeopardizing the legitimate interests of employers In defense of freer speech in and around the workplace Barry argues that a healthy democracy depends in part on the experience of liberty at work Workplaces are key venues for shared experience and public discourse so workplace speech rights matter deeply for advancing citizenship community and democracy in a free society Eye opening for anyone who has a job Big Brother isn't just a figment of the imagination Foreword Reviews

Sustainability in the Chemical Industry Eric Johnson, 2012-04-17 It's the new rock and roll It's the new black Sustainability is trendy and not just among hipsters and pop stars The uncool chemical sector helped pioneer it and today companies inside and outside the sector have embraced it But what have they embraced Surely not the Brundtland definition of meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs Sustainability describes a change in the chemical industry's approach to the external world to regulators to greens to neighbors to investors and to the general public Displacing the adversarialism of the 1970s 80s sustainability is a new approach to social political conflict and an attempt to rebuild the industry's long suffering public image In practice it consists of A stakeholder approach to communications and external relations A rebranding of regulatory compliance and risk management with the emphasis on their benefits to stakeholders Recognition and even celebration of the opportunities not just the costs of environmental and social protection The core of this book is a survey of the world's 29 largest chemical companies how they put sustainability into action six of the 29 do not and the six sustainability brands they have created It begins with a history of stakeholders conflict before looking at various definitions of sustainability by academics by the public and by investors After the survey and analysis the book covers sustainability and greenwash plus the ROI of sustainability and it gives five recommendations
