EPA 200-B. ,1996-10 Statemaking and Territory in South Asia Bernardo A. Michael,2012-12-15 Statemaking and Territory in South Asia Lessons from the Anglo Gorkha War 1814 1816 seeks to understand how European colonization transformed the organization of territory in South Asia through an examination of the territorial disputes that underlay the Anglo Gorkha War of 1814 1816 and subsequent efforts of the colonial state to reorder its territories The volume argues that these disputes arose out of older tribute taxation and property relationships that left their territories perpetually intermixed and with ill defined boundaries It also seeks to describe the long drawn out process of territorial reordering undertaken by the British in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that set the stage for the creation of a clearly defined geographical template for the modern state in South Asia New Serial Titles ,1989 A union list of serials commencing publication after after months of stalemate in the trenches on Gallipoli British and Dominion troops launched a series of assaults in an all out attempt to break the deadlock and achieve a decisive victory The August offensive resulted in heartbreaking failure and costly losses on both sides Many of the sites of the bloody struggle became famous names Lone Pine the Nek Chunuk Bair Hill 60 Suvla Bay Debate has continued to the present day over the strategy and planning the real or illusory opportunities for success and the causes of failure in what became the last throw of the dice for the Allies Some argue that these costly attacks were a lost opportunity others maintain that the outcomes were simply inevitable This new book about the Gallipoli battles arises out of a major international conference at the Australian War Memorial in 2010 to mark the 95th anniversary of the Gallipoli campaign The conference drew leading military historians from around the world to bring multi national viewpoints to the many intriguing questions still debated about Gallipoli Keynote speaker Professor Robin Prior of the University of Adelaide author of Gallipoli the end of the myth 2009 led a range of international authorities from Australia New Zealand Britain France Germany India and Turkey to present their most recent research findings The result was significant never before had such a range of views been presented with fresh German and Turkish perspectives offered alongside those of British and Australasian historians For the resulting book the papers have been edited and the text has been augmented with soldiers letters and diary accounts as well as a large number of photographs and maps Resources
