Memorandum Explanatory of the Budget Punjab (India),1966      Annual Financial Statement and Explanatory Memorandum on the Budget of the Himachal Pradesh Government Himachal Pradesh (India). Finance Department,1974      Budget Memorandum Pondicherry (India : Union Territory),1978      The River Returns Christopher Armstrong,Matthew Evenden,H.V. Nelles,2011-05-01 Alberta's iconic river has been dammed and plumbed made to spin hydro electric turbines and used to cleanse Calgary Artificial lakes in the mountains rearrange its flow downstream weirs and ditches divert it to irrigate the parched prairie Far from being wild the Bow is now very much a human product its fish are as manufactured as its altered flow changed water quality and newly stabilized and forested banks The River Returns brings the story of the Bow River's transformation full circle through an exploration of the recent revolution in environmental thinking and regulation that has led to new limits on what might be done with and to the river Rivers have been studied from many perspectives but too often the relationship between nature and people between rivers and the cultures that have grown up beside them have been separated The River Returns illuminates the ways in which humans both inadvertently and consciously have interacted with nature to make the Bow      Explanatory Memorandum on the Budget Pondicherry (India : Union Territory),1978      Memorandum Explanatory of the Budget for the Year ... Punjab (India),1964      Tourism, Magic and Modernity David Picard,2011-09-01 Drawing from extended fieldwork in La Reunion in the Indian Ocean the author suggests an innovative re reading of different concepts of magic that emerge in the global cultural economics of tourism Following the making and unmaking of the tropical island tourism destination of La Reunion he demonstrates how destinations are transformed into magical pleasure gardens in which human life is cultivated for tourist consumption Like a gardener would cultivate flowers local development policy nature conservation and museum initiatives dramatise local social life so as to evoke modernist paradigms of time beauty and nature Islanders who live in this human garden are thus placed in the ambivalent role of human flowers embodying ideas of authenticity and biblical innocence but also of history and social life in perpetual creolisation      Making Ireland Irish Eric G. E. Zuelow,2009-03-01 From the dark shadow of civil war to the pastel painted towns of today Making Ireland Irish provides a sweeping account of the evolution of the Irish tourist industry over the twentieth century Drawing on an extensive array of previously untapped or underused sources Eric G E Zuelow examines how a small group of tourism advocates inspired by tourist development movements in countries such as France and Spain worked tirelessly to convince their Irish compatriots that tourism was the secret to Ireland's success Over time tourism went from being a national joke to a national interest Men and women from across Irish society joined in eager to help shape their country and culture for visitors eyes The result was Ireland as it is depicted today a land of blue skies smiling faces pastel towns natural beauty ancient history and timeless traditions With lucid prose and vivid detail Zuelow explains how careful planning transformed Irish towns and villages from grey and unattractive to bright and inviting sanitized Irish history to avoid offending Ireland's largest tourist market the English and supplanted traditional rural fairs revolving around muddy animals and featuring sexually suggestive ceremonies with new family friendly festivals and events filling today's tourist calendar By challenging existing notions that the Irish tourist product is either timeless or the consequence of colonialism Zuelow demonstrates that the development of tourist imagery and Irish national identity was not the result of a handful of elites or a postcolonial legacy but rather the product of an extended discussion that ultimately involved a broad cross section of society both inside and outside Ireland Tourism he argues played a vital role in making Ireland Irish
