Return to the Shadows Alison Pargeter, 2016-09-22 The Arab Spring heralded a profound shift in the Middle East bringing to power Islamist movements which had previously been operating in the shadows The Muslim Brotherhood stormed to victory in Egypt and emerged as a key player in Libya's nascent political arena Meanwhile An Nahda found itself catapulted into power as the head of Tunisia's coalition government For a while it looked as though the region was entering the dawn of a new Islamist age But navigating their respective countries through difficult and painful transitions ultimately proved too challenging for these forces and just as suddenly the Brotherhood was dramatically overthrown in Egypt and left severely weakened in Libya In Tunisia An Nahda managed to pull itself through the crisis but its failure to articulate and deliver the hopes and aspirations of a large section of Tunisian society damaged its credibility In this authoritative account Alison Pargeter expertly charts the Islamists ascent and subsequent fall from power Based on extensive research and interviews with high ranking members of the Brotherhood and An Nahda Pargeter offers a comparative analysis of the movement in North Africa since the Arab Spring and outlines the consequences of the Brotherhood's decline on both the region and the wider Islamist political project

We the Possibility Mitchell Weiss, 2021-01-19 Can we solve big public problems anymore Yes we can This provocative and inspiring book points the way The huge challenges we face are daunting indeed climate change crumbling infrastructure declining public education and social services At the same time we've come to accept the sad notion that government can't do new things or solve tough problems it's too big too slow and mired in bureaucracy Not so says former public official now Harvard Business School professor Mitchell Weiss The truth is entrepreneurial spirit and savvy in government are growing transforming the public sector's response to big problems at all levels The key Weiss argues is a shift from a mindset of Probability Government overly focused on safe solutions and mimicking so called best practices to Possibility Government This means public leadership and management that's willing to boldly imagine new possibilities and to experiment Weiss shares the three basic tenets of this new way of governing Government that can imagine Seeing problems as opportunities and involving citizens in designing solutions Government that can try new things Testing and experimentation as a regular part of solving public problems Government that can scale Harnessing platform techniques for innovation and growth The lessons unfold in the timely episodes Weiss has seen and studied the US Special Operations Command prototyping of a hoverboard for chasing pirates a heroin hackathon in opioid ravaged Cincinnati a series of experiments in Singapore to rein in Covid 19 among many others At a crucial moment in the evolution of government's role in our society We the Possibility provides inspiration and a positive model along with crucial guardrails to help shape progress for generations to come
