Inter-Regional Place Branding Sebastian Zenker, Björn P. Jacobsen, 2015-04-01 This book examines and clarifies key aspects of regional branding with the special focus of inter regional brands Today regions are in strong competition for companies tourists and most of all talent In order to differentiate one region from another regional developers politicians and planners increasingly focus on establishing the region as a brand This is by no means easy since places are complex systems of geographical abstractions in which each place is understood in relation and contrast to other geographical entities In doing so regions not only differentiate but also cooperate within one country or between countries building so called Inter Regional Brands with an even higher degree of complexity Accordingly this volume provides a theoretically well informed but practically oriented overview of this phenomenon including numerous cases and best practices As such it will strongly appeal to both academics and practitioners in the field

Routledge
Handbook on Middle East Cities Haim Yacobi, Mansour Nasasra, 2019-07-01 Presenting the current debate about cities in the Middle East from Sana a Beirut and Jerusalem to Cairo Marrakesh and Gaza the book explores urban planning and policy migration gender and identity as well as politics and economics of urban settings in the region This handbook moves beyond essentialist and reductive analyses of identity urban politics planning and development in cities in the Middle East and instead offers critical engagement with both historical and contemporary urban processes in the region Approaching Cities as multi dimensional sites products of political processes knowledge production and exchange and local and global visions as well as spatial artefacts Importantly in the different case studies and theoretical approaches there is no attempt to idealise urban politics planning and everyday life in the Middle East which as with many other cities elsewhere are also situations of contestation and violence but rather to highlight how cities in the region and especially those which are understudied revolve around issues of housing infrastructure participation and identity amongst other concerns Analysing a variety of cities in the Middle East the book is a significant contribution to Middle East Studies It is an essential resource for students and academics interested in Geography Regional and Urban Studies of the Middle East
