Toubab Or Not Toubab:

"Toubab La!" Literary Representations of Mixed-Race Characters in the African Diaspora Ginette Curry, 2009-05-05 The book is an examination of mixed race characters from writers in the United States The French and British Caribbean islands Martinique Guadeloupe St Lucia and Jamaica Europe France and England and Africa Burkina Faso South Africa Botswana and Senegal The objective of this study is to capture a realistic view of the literature of the African diaspora as it pertains to biracial and multiracial people For example the expression Toubab La as used in the title is from the Wolof ethnic group in Senegal West Africa It means This is a white person or This is a black person who looks or acts white It is used as a metaphor to illustrate multiethnic people's plight in many areas of the African diaspora and how it has evolved The analysis addresses the different ways multiracial characters look at the world and how the world looks at them These characters experience historical economic sociological and emotional realities in various environments from either white or black people Their lineage as both white and black determines a new self making them constantly search for their identity Each section of the manuscript provides an in depth analysis of specific authors novels that is a window into their true experiences The first section is a study of mixed race characters in three acclaimed contemporary novels from the United States James McBride's The Color of Water 1996 Danzy Senna's Caucasia 1998 and Rebecca Walker's Black White and Jewish 2001 reveal the conflicting dynamics of being biracial in today's American society The second section is an examination of mixed race characters in the following French Caribbean novels Mayotte Capécia's I Am a Martinican Woman 1948 Michèle Lacrosil's Cajou 1961 and Ravines du Devant Jour 1993 by Raphaël Confiant Section three is about their literary representations in Derek Walcott's What the Twilight Says 1970 Another life 1973 Dream on Monkey Mountain 1967 and Michelle Cliff's Abeng 1995 from the British Caribbean islands Section four is an in depth analysis of their plight in novels written by contemporary mulatto writers from Europe such as Marie N Diaye's Among Family 1997 Zadie Smith's White Teeth 2000 and Bernardine Evaristo's Lara 1997 Finally the last section of the book is a study of novels from West African and South African writers The analysis of Monique Ilboudo's Le Mal de Peau 2001 Bessie Head's A Woman Alone Autobiographical Writings 1990 and Abdoulaye Sadj's Nini Multitude du Sénégal 1947 concludes this literary journey that takes the readers through several continents at different points in time Overall this comprehensive study of mixed race characters in the literature of the African diaspora reveals not only the old but also the new ways they decline contest and refuse racial clichés Likewise the book unveils how these characters resist create reappropriate and revise fixed forms of identity in the African diaspora of the 20th and 21st century Most importantly it is also an examination of how the authors themselves deal with the complex reality of a multiracial identity

Someone Knows My Name: A Novel Lawrence Hill, 2008-11-17 Winner of the Commonwealth Writers Prize Wonderfully written populated by vivid characters and rendered in fascinating detail Nancy Kline New York Times Book Review Kidnapped from Africa as a child Aminata Diallo is enslaved in South Carolina but escapes during the chaos of the Revolutionary War In Manhattan she becomes a scribe for the British recording the names of blacks who have served the King and earned their freedom in Nova Scotia But the hardship and prejudice of the new colony prompt her to follow her heart back to Africa then on to London where she bears witness to the injustices of slavery and its toll on her life and a whole people It is a story that no listener and no reader will ever forget Published in Canada as The Book of Negroes and the basis for the award winning BET miniseries of the same name

Decolonizing Translation Kathryn Batchelor, 2014-04-08 The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub-Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation Displacing Theory Through the Global South Iracema Dulley, Özgün Eylül İşcen, 2024-04-02 Displacing Theory Through the Global South calls for reflection on the historical and geopolitical inequalities that have shaped theorization It asserts that what appears universal often involves generalizations that flatten the particular Critiquing the colonialist imperialist and Eurocentric perspectives that have historically impacted theorization in general and more specifically knowledge production about the so called Global South this volume seeks a different form of engagement that moves beyond such strictures Featuring essays that unsettle distinctions between the general and the particular it proposes a commitment to expanding notions of universality making theorization not only relevant and generative but ultimately transformative The Rough Guide to the Gambia Emma Gregg, Richard Trillo, 2003 The Rough Guide to The Gambia is the most comprehensive guide to Africa's most accessible country This second edition the result of detailed on the ground research reports on exciting new developments including beautiful eco retreats and imaginative wildlife conservation projects where visitors can see birds monkeys and chimps at close range Detailed maps and plans are complemented by expert and upbeat guidance on the beaches villages and music the mangrove creeks and the River Gambia itself There are first hand reviews of all the best accommodation restaurant and bar options in the country both on and off the beaten track for everyone from shoestring travellers to luxury tourists The guide is also full of trademark candid insights into Gambian history politics music language and culture My Name Is Phillis Wheatley Afua Cooper, 2023-05-02 This is the remarkable story of Phillis Wheatley who is born into an African family of griots or storytellers but captured by slave raiders and forced aboard a slave ship where appalling conditions spell death for many of her companions Numerous sharks follow the ship feeding on the corpses of slaves thrown overboard Weakened by the voyage and near death in a Boston slave market Wheatley is bought by a kind family who nurses her back to health and teaches her to read and write Soon her mistress recognizes that the girl is a quick learner and talented At the age of 12 a torrent of poetry begins to flow out of Wheatley Proud of her achievements her mistress organizes readings in Boston's finest parlors and drawing rooms and Wheatley's fame spreads But even when many in Boston are calling her a prodigy and a genius some remain unsure that a slave should be able to write much less write poetry When Phillis travels to London she is a media sensation feted by the cream of English society A book of her poems is published and she finally gains her freedom This amazing story wide in scope is based on fact and told convincingly from young Wheatley's point of view Toubab or not toubab Jean-Claude Deray, 2004 Senegal Sean Connolly, 2019-02-01 This new thoroughly updated edition of Bradt's Senegal continues to offer far and away the greatest depth of coverage for this increasingly popular part of West Africa With over 350 pages of detailed description and 40 maps this remains the definitive source of information to a country that is often described as the whole of West Africa in microcosm This new edition includes details of the rapidly changing transport situation notably the opening of the new international airport and the first bridge to span the Gambia River All regions of the country are covered including detailed information on access to Senegal s national parks with detailed maps itineraries and practical information on transport accommodation and eating for each region Senegal boasts a variety of landscapes and cultures that belie its compact size Northern desert wilds give way to the rain soaked Casamance fringed by hundreds of kilometres of pristine beaches and the fantastically frenetic capital city Dakar surrounded by ocean and proudly perched at the westernmost point on the African continent This smorgasbord of landscapes is all accessible within a day s travel making Senegal the perfect choice for anyone looking to sink their teeth into West Africa for the first time or the hundredth Natural assets aside Senegal is home to a world of man made delectations Dakar s nightclubs throb well into the morning hours and offer a rare chance to dance yourself silly with superstar musicians on their home turf With one of Africa s most prolific arts scenes Senegal attracts numerous visitors for its cultural attractions and this book provides a thorough and accessible introduction to the music art film and literature of this most creative of countries Beyond the capital Saint Louis charm is an enchanting throwback to the colonial glamour of the 19th century and sleepy le de Gor e is a haunting testament to colonial horror as visitors peer through the door of no return where thousands destined for the Americas glimpsed their homes for the final time With all new first hand research Bradt s Senegal is the only guide ready to take you to all corners of this enchanting land

African Realities Josep Martí, 2014-10-02 African Realities Body Culture and Social Tensions is the result of research anthropology work carried out in different African countries mainly in Equatorial Guinea but also in Senegal Cabo Verde Benin and Ethiopia All the different chapters of this volume address a diversity of subjects related to relevant issues such as gender age social class ethnicity and coloniality which are indispensable for understanding current African realities Furthermore all of these chapters investigate the importance people place on the body and more concretely the manner in which these people present it to others as a common denominator After a brief theoretical introduction about the key concept of the book the social presentation of the body the contributors analyse the results of their own fieldwork taking as a starting point the central role that the body plays in the relationship between the individual and society As is clearly shown in this book the social presentation of the body matters From a general and structural point of view it matters because of its great significance within social logics but it also matters because of its relevant role in situational dynamics of social interaction and because of its close relationship with the emotional registers of individuals If the issue related to the social presentation of the body has an undoubted interest for the academic milieu it is also true that it has great social relevance and constitutes an undeniable political concern The policies related to the social presentation of the body serve to mark justify maintain or even build hierarchical relationships of social order at the level of class gender ethnicity or age Throughout the book and from the African studies perspective different views are offered concerning how the body being not only medium of expression but at the same time a site of experience and construction of the self appears in the centre of social tensions and is an object of strategy control or resistance

Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies Babacar

M'Baye, Besi Brillian Muhonja, 2019-07-10 Drawing from the diverse fields of postcolonial studies literary studies history anthropology sociology political science environmental studies and development studies among others Gender and Sexuality in Senegalese Societies demonstrates the urgency and necessity of new research in gender and queer studies in and on Senegalese societies By focusing on subjects that have thus far been largely neglected in national and scholarly debates the chapters are subversive complex and inclusive centering within Senegalese studies themes and elements of alternative nonbinary variant and nonheteronormative gender identities sexualities and voices Contributors demonstrate that nationalist and anticolonial discourses propelled by deep and lingering socioeconomic inequalities have led in postcolonial Senegal to vitriolic scapegoating of individuals and communities with variant sexual and gender identities The chapters in this volume look inward to the voices and experiences of the Senegalese people to challenge nationalist representations of advocacy for the liberation of gender and sexual minorities in Senegal as a function of a Western neocolonialist agenda The Rough Guide to First-Time Africa Rough Guides, 2011-04-01 The Rough Guide First Time Africa tells you everything you need to know before you go to Africa from visas and vaccinations to budgets and packing It will help you plan the best possible trip with advice on when to go and what not to miss and how to avoid trouble on the road You ll find insightful information on what tickets to buy where to stay what to eat and how to stay healthy and save money in Africa The Rough Guide First Time Africa includes insightful overviews of each African country highlighting the best places to visit with country specific websites clear maps suggested reading and budget information Be inspired by the things not to miss section whilst useful contact details will help you plan your route All kinds of advice and anecdotes from travellers who ve been there and done it will make travelling stress free The Rough Guide First Time Africa has everything you need to get your journey underway The Rough Guide to First Time Africa now available in epub format African Cinemas Olivier Barlet, 2000 Exploring the achievements and challenges of those who seek to affirm African cultural values through film the book also covers the African television industry and African American cinema It includes interviews with film makers stills from the films and ultimately a plea for seeing and respecting the otherness of the Other The French National Film Centre s best film book of 1997 and now available in four languages this is a book which takes us into a process of learning how to look BOOK JACKET

Women At A Crossroads M. Lewis Renaud, 2013-10-11 HIV ravaged the African continent faster and earlier than any other in the world spreading primarily through unprotected heterosexual sex Kaolack Senegal is a town where travellers and prostitutes converge and HIV transmission rates have soared especially among the prostitutes Going beyond empirical analysis of risk behaviour data Women at the Crossroads tells the stories of these women in their own words The women portrayed keep their profession a secret from their families and friends but abide by Senegalese law which states that prostitution is legal for those who register with the police and undergo bi monthly health examinations By observing one clinic s successful AIDS education campaign anthropologist Michelle Renaud demonstrates that information presented in a culturally appropriate manner can in fact achieve the difficult goal of behaviour change Although these women claim to be trapped by the social and political forces that have led them to enter prostitution Renaud argues that they have taken control of their destinies in an inspiring fashion

The Book of Mother Violaine Huisman,2021-10-19 A New York Times Notable Book A gorgeous critically acclaimed debut novel about a young woman coming of age with a dazzling yet damaged mother who lived and loved in extremes A prizewinning tour de force when it was published in France Violaine Huisman s remarkable debut novel is about a daughter s inextinguishable love for her magnetic mercurial mother Beautiful and charismatic Catherine a k a Maman smokes too much drives too fast laughs too hard and loves too extravagantly During a joyful and chaotic childhood in Paris her daughter Violaine wouldn t have it any other way But when Maman is hospitalized after a third divorce and a breakdown everything changes Even as Violaine and her sister long for their mother s return once she s back Maman s violent mood swings and flagrant disregard for personal boundaries soon turn their home into an emotional landmine As the story of Catherine s own traumatic childhood and adolescence unfolds the pieces come together to form an indelible portrait of a mother as irresistible as she is impossible as triumphant as she is transgressive With spectacular ferocity of language a streak of dark humor and stunning emotional bravery The Book of Mother is an exquisitely wrought story of a mother s dizzying heights and devastating lows and a daughter who must hold her memory close in order to let go

Africa & the West James W. Fernández,1972 This book offers some exciting examples of the insights to be gained from studies of the intellectual responses of Africans to the West In six case studies anthropologists historians and a literary critic study the impact of the West on African patterns of thought Library Journal

Squirting Milk at Chameleons Simon Fenton,2015-01-31 The tale of an Englishman making a life for himself in SenegalKhady pulled out a breast and with a deadly aim fired milk at the chameleon If I don t offer it milk our son will grow up to look like a lizard she explained Clearly I had a lot to learn about life in Africa On the cusp of middle age Simon Fenton leaves Britain in search of adventure and finds Senegal love fatherhood witch doctors and a piece of land that could make a perfect guest house if only he knew how to build one The Casamance is an undiscovered paradise here mystic Africa governs life people walk to the beat of the djembe when it rains it pours and the mangoes are free But the fact that his name translates to vampire and he has had a curse placed on him via the medium of eggs could mean Simon s new life may not be so easy
